

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and it is hereby added to Article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Dorchester County", sub-title "Cambridge", said section to be known as Section 63C, and to follow immediately after Section 63B of said Article and to read as follows:

63C. In addition to the power of The Commissioners of Cambridge under Section 63 to borrow on negotiable paper up to Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), the said The Commissioners of Cambridge are hereby authorized and empowered to borrow and to pledge the faith and credit of said town by the issuance of negotiable paper to the extent of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00), which said sum shall be over and above the amount now authorized by Section 63. The total amount borrowed by authority of Sections 63 and this section shall at no time exceed the aggregate sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) unless expressly authorized by statute. Any sum so borrowed must be paid off in the next succeeding fiscal year, and the said The Commissioners of Cambridge are hereby required to make provision for payment in its budget and tax levy next following the borrowing of any money under these sections.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all of the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 22, 1949.
