

ber session, eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, chapter five, CHAP. 210.
be and the same is hereby transferred and given to Baltimore city court, or the judges thereof; and that all of the Repealed aforesaid act of Assembly, so far as the same relates to the orphans' court of Baltimore county, be and the same is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 209.

An act to authorise John B. Wells to bring his Negro Slaves into this State. Passed Mar. 8, 1841.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Authority to introduce negro slaves
That John B. Wells, although he may not reside in this State, be authorised to bring into this State his negro slaves, upon paying the tax provided by the act of eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, chapter fifteen, and furnishing a list of their names and ages to the clerk of the county in which he may bring the same, to be recorded in said office, and making affidavit that said slaves are slaves for life.

CHAPTER 210.

An act for the benefit of the Hagerstown Charity School. Passed Mar. 8, 1841.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Commissioners of Washington county to pay $400
That the commissioners of Washington county be and they are hereby authorised to pay, out of the present or any future surplus that may arise from the school fund of said county, a sum of money not exceeding four hundred dollars, to be used in the purchase of a parcel of ground, and the erection of a school house thereon, in the town of Hagerstown, by said Charity School, and for the future accommodation of its pupils; provided, said school house be How applied built within three years from and after the passage of this act; and provided further, that the sum hereby authorised to be paid for the purpose aforesaid, shall be taken from such portion of the school fund of said county, as shall fall or be distributed to the third election district of said county. Proviso