The only way to stop Reagan is to Vote Democratic.

Power.
President Carter has appointed more Black judges than all the other Presidents combined. He's put more Blacks in key positions than any other President.

Ronald Reagan's position is simple:
During his first term as Governor of California, he appointed just 9 Blacks out of 3,709 appointments.
When it comes to power, the choice is clear.

Jobs.
OPEC price increases have practically turned our economy upside down. Yet President Carter has created 8½ million new jobs. Over 1 million new Black jobs.

Ronald Reagan's position is simple:
Private enterprise and tax cuts for the rich.
When it comes to jobs, the choice is clear.

Programs.
President Carter has more than doubled CETA funds. The Job Corps has been increased 159%. He's doubled the amount of contracts to minority firms. And he's taken federal contracts away from big corporations that discriminate against us.

Ronald Reagan's position is simple:
The less the better.
When it comes to programs, the choice is clear.

BLACK ELECTED OFFICIALS
ENDORSE
AND URGE YOU TO VOTE FOR PRESIDENT
JIMMY CARTER

BEFORE YOU VOTE FOR A PRESIDENT ON NOVEMBER 4, THINK ABOUT THESE IMPORTANT FACTS:

- The Carter Administration has created 8½ million new jobs in the economy.
- President Carter has doubled funds for CETA jobs. Republicans Reagan and Anderson want to wipe out CETA jobs.
- President Carter has increased funding for youth employment programs by 75%. He has proposed to the Congress a $6 billion youth employment act.
- President Carter has appointed hundreds of blacks to top federal jobs. Ronald Reagan in his first term as governor of California appointed only 9 blacks out of 3,709 appointments.
- President Carter has appointed 40 black federal judges—more than all other presidents combined. These judges will remain on the job, making policy, and affecting our lives, for decades to come.
- President Carter has appointed more black generals and admirals than all previous presidents combined.
- To help us pay our utility bills, President Carter put a windfall profits tax on big oil. Now Reagan wants to repeal it.
- Ronald Reagan opposed JFK's fight for the civil rights act. He opposed LBJ on the voting rights act. He is also opposed to the minimum wage law.
- President Carter is now pressing for the most critical civil rights legislation to come before Congress in years—a bill to make the promise of equal housing opportunity a reality.
