Civil Rights, Civil Liberties and Voting Rights.

Senator Mathias has been one of the nation's most eloquent spokesman on behalf of civil rights, individual liberties and privacy and universal suffrage for all Americans. He has voted to extend equal opportunity to the handicapped and elderly, to protect the individual's right to privacy in bank, credit, medical and telephone records, and to protect the press and third parties from unwarranted searches and seizures. He was one of the three Representatives in 1963 who introduced the legislation which ultimately resulted in the omnibus Civil Rights Act of 1964. He was a sponsor of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, and in 1975 he strongly supported legislation which extended the Act for seven years and expanded its protections.

COMMUNITY LEADERS TALK ABOUT SENATOR MATHIAS:

"Mac Mathias is a noble American who help the poor and disadvantaged."
Clarence M. Mitchell Jr.

"There are few people in the political arena who transcend party in the interest of human beings and their welfare. Sen. Mathias has consistently been an advocate for people's needs, at times against great odds and at great political risks. His service in a legislative body that is often deficient in its human concerns is not only a necessity fonMarylanders, but also for the nation and for all mankind."
Rev. Vernon Dobson, President, Baptist Ministers Conference

"Mac Mathais is the kind of Senator we need if Black Americans are to achieve our goals in society. He's been a leader for civil rights, civil liberties and voting rights; he's noa forgotten us when it comes to better housing, better schools, better health care and jobs."
Congressman Parren J. Mitchell

"Senator Mathias is unique. He epitomizes the elected official who has written his own chapter in Profiles of Courage. Mac is a true representative of all the people of Maryland. He deserves this opportunity to return to the United States Senate."
Del. Larry Young

"We unequivocally support Sen. Charles McC. Mathias for reelection. For many, to endorse a politician is an obligation based upon partv affiliation. For us to endorse Sen. Mathias is a privilege."
Rev. Marion Bascom, President Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance

"I have known Senator Mathias for over 15 years and found him to be an unusually sensitive and caring public official. He is always responsive to the needs of all people. He has earned our vott of confidence for anothec term. I endorse him wholeheartedly without qualification."
George L. Russell Jr., Baltimore Attorney

"Mac is a man of tremendous background, a man for all seasons, for all people . . I'm pleised to indicate my strong support for his election.
Dr. Aris Allen, Maryland State Senator

"Mac Mathias has been responsive to the needs of the people . . . he will be responsive to our community and to the nation as a whole in the next six years. We have been impressed by his leadership and his abilities."
City Councilman, Norman Reeves
President, Northwest Democratic Organization

"I'm going to beat the drum for Mac Mathias. In my lifetime he's probably one of the best senators the State of Maryland has seen. He's been most cooperative in answering the problems of my constituents. When you have a good man, you don't replace him."
City Councilman Nathan Irby

"Mac Mathias is a true friend of the poor and underprivileged. He understands the problems of ordinary working people and has always responded to their needs. His leadership in civil, individual i nd voting rights deserves our full support."
Ray Clarke, President, AFSCME, Local 44
