

CHAF. 52. SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That no member of the said society shall, in his individual capacity, be answerable for any losses, deficiencies or failures of the joint fund of the said society for any more or larger sum or sums of money whatsoever than the current amount by him payable into the common fund of the society.

Proposition to dissolve to be in writing. SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That if at any time, it may be thought necessary to dissolve this society, a proposition to that effect shall be laid on the table in writing at a stated meeting of the society, and may be discussed at the next stated or special meeting, but shall not be finally decided on, until it has been fully nine months before the society, and shall not take effect, unless four fifths of the members present concur therein.

Issuing of notes forbid. SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be construed as to authorise the said corporation, to issue any note, token, scrip, device, or other evidence of debt, to be used as currency.

Rights reserved. SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That this act of incorporation shall enure for thirty years from its passage, and that the legislature reserves to itself the right to alter or annul this act of incorporation at pleasure.

CHAPTER 52.

Passed Feb. 2, 1843. An act to incorporate the Union Hall Company of Fell's Point.

Incorporation. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William S. Espy, William Colton, Richard Wells, and such other persons as may become stockholders in said Union Hall Company, their successors and assigns, be and they are hereby created and made a corporation and body politic, by the name and style of the Union Hall Company; and by that name, may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer and be answered, defend and be defended in any court of law or equity, and so ordain and establish such bye-laws, rules and regulations, as may be necessary for the good government of the concerns of said corporation, not contrary to the laws of this state, or of the United States, and the same to change, alter, add to, or amend as may appear necessary or proper, and to have, make and use one common seal, and the same to change and renew at pleasure, and generally to do every other act or thing necessary to carry into effect the provi-
