C H A P. XVII.

An ACT to confirm a sale of land made by the executors of Henry Willis to Joseph Haines.

Passed 20th of
Dec. 1808.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of Anne Willis, James McCannon and Francis Hollingsworth, the executors of Henry Willis, late of Frederick county, deceased, that the debts of the deceased were very considerable, and more than the personal estate would discharge, and that from the difficulty of the times money could not be borrowed, nor the crop sold without a great sacrifice, and that with a view therefore to promote the interest of those interested in the estate, the executors, one the widow, and one the brother-in-law of the deceased, undertook and did sell to the said Joseph Haines one hundred and fifty acres of land, more or less, situate in the aforesaid county, at and for the price of forty dollars per acre, the same being the land the deceased purchased from a certain John Giger, at the same price and on the same terms thus sold to Haines, and the facts being established to the satisfaction of this assembly, and the disposition of the part of the real estate aforesaid appearing evidently the most advantageous for the estate; in order, therefore, to confirm the title of the said Joseph Haines,

Sale declared valid, &c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the sale of the land aforesaid, made by the executors aforesaid to the said Joseph Haines, be and the same is hereby declared to be as valid and effectual as if the said executors had been expressly authorised by the last will and testament of the deceased to dispose of the said land.

Executors to give a deed,
&c.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, On the payment of the purchase money, and not before, the said executors, the survivor or survivors of them, shall be and they are hereby authorised in virtue of this law, by deed, to be acknowledged and recorded according to law, to give, grant, bargain and sell, release and confirm, to the said Joseph Haines, his heirs or assigns, in fee simple, the land aforesaid, and all the right, title, interest and estate in and to the same, that was in the said Henry Willis, deceased, at the time of his death, and upon due execution, acknowledgment and recording of the said deed, the said Joseph Haines, his heirs or assigns, to whom the conveyance shall be
