CHAPTER 112.

An act authorising the School House Building Committee, of Sharpsburg, in Washington County, to sell and convey a lot therein mentioned. Passed Mar. 4, 1839.

WHEREAS, by the petition of Jacob Rohrbach, John Miller, John M. Knode, John D. Grove and N. B. Robinson, it appears to the General Assembly of Maryland, that the said petitioners, acting as a building committee for the purpose of building a school house in the town of Sharpsburg, in Washington county, incurred a considerable debt, which from the subscriptions made by private individuals were not sufficient to discharge; and whereas, a certain lot had been given by the original proprietor of Sharpsburg, situated in said town for the purpose of building said school house upon; and whereas, the said building committee did not deem it expedient or advantageous to build upon said lot; and whereas, the said lot still remains unemployed, and in its present condition useless:—Therefore, Preamble

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, May sell and convey
That the said building committee, or a majority of them, are hereby authorised and directed to sell and
