

CHAP. 394. tees, or a majority of them, if they shall be satisfied that said account is just and true, are hereby authorised and directed to certify their approbation of said account, and on said account being so certified and presented to the commissioners for Somerset county, it shall be the duty of said commissioners to draw an order on the Bank of Salisbury in favor of such teacher for the amount of his account, or such part thereof as said commissioners shall ascertain that he is fairly and justly entitled to.

Trustees shall return list of scholars to commissioners Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the trustees of each election district, or a majority of them, to designate the number of schools which it is proper for them to patronize, and they, or a majority of them, shall return a true and perfect list of all such children to whom they may have given certificates as aforesaid to the commissioners of Somerset county, specifying to what teacher each pupil was sent, and at the same time they shall submit to the said commissioners a statement shewing the aggregate amount of money to which such election district is entitled, and what portion thereof each teacher will be entitled to receive as compensation for his services, and if at any time the whole amount of the said election district's proportion of said school fund shall not be expended, it shall remain and be for the use of said district for the succeeding year, to be applied in like manner.

Case of money not being expended Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That the office of treasurer, created by the original act to which this is a supplement, be, and the same is hereby abolished, and the said treasurer is hereby required to pay over to said commissioners any sum or sums of money now in his hands to be deposited in the Bank of Salisbury as aforesaid, subject to the order of the said commissioners.

Treasurer of original act abolished

Payment over directed