HERITAGE OF BLACK RICHMOND

From day one, blacks have played important role

Prior to Mr. Lincoln's Emanciaption Proclamation, the black man in Richmond was a multi-mixed blend, an enigma, a blessing in disugise — that disguise forcibly imposed by white man's law that shaped and molded and indoctrinated and smothered temporarily a dormant ingenuity waiting opportunity of expression in a world of cruel constraints.

By Nancy J. Taylor
Master Teacher and History Specialist
Richmond Public Schools
Arts and Humanities Center

PICTURES OF THE FIRST THREE CHURCHES

ORGANIZED
SEPT. 1867
1867
1867