"Bouquets for Bessie was the title of the banquet given last week in honor of Mrs. Marcus (Bessie) Wood, wife of the pastor of Provident Baptist Church. The spectacular and gala event in the dining room of the town's first solar church saw the honoree literally showered with springtime flowers.

Sponsors were members of the Dorcus Auxiliary with Constance Leak, president and Alice L. Stubbs and Dr. Maxine J. Wood, daughter-in-law of the honoree, presiding.

The occasion was made festive by a ceiling-high bower of flowers for Rev. and Mrs. Wood, and a huge bouquet composed of posies from each and every one of the church's many organizations.

Most of all there was a home-cooked banquet of many, many dishes prepared and served by the ladies of the church. Innumerable presentations of bouquets and a flowery moneytree went to Mrs. Wood.

The community was represented by Mrs. Helen Brackett, Gold Leaf Social Club; Mrs. Odell Payne, Enon Baptist Church; Elizabeth M. Oliver, AFRO and Oakley Walton, Mt. Lebanon Baptist, soloist.

John Campbell, Gloria Redd, Mrs. Edna Over Campbell and Miss Lisa Johnson represented Provident Baptist in tributes and gifts. Mrs. Jeanette W. Brown, Marcus G. Wood Jr. and the Wood grandchildren represented the family. Benediction was by Rev. Maurice Holder, pastor, First Baptist Church.

The opening prayer was by Earl Williams. Mrs. Eva W. Cook set the stage for the evening with her speech and Dr. Wood gave the theme. Music was by the Mass Choral Ensemble and the Dorcus Auxiliary.

Committee members were Alice L. Stubbs, chair; Ida M. Kelsic, banquet chair; publicity and decorations, Francis Chase, reservations, Catherine Creigler; Hospitality, Joyce Morton and Andrea Abraham, mistress of ceremonies; Isa Kelsic and Lucille Wells.
