If You Ask Me

By Bettye Mess

Varsity M

That was a nice thing members of the Morgan University Varsity M Club did on Saturday evening. They gave a party with a purpose.

Proceeds of the supper dance at Fontaine Bleu go to the group's scholarship fund.

A large crowd attended. A number of guests were greeting each other like they hadn't met for years. Later, they admitted same.

Our table companions included Ducky Ross, who squired Audrey Pinderhughes, and Powell Sheffey and Dorothy Joyce.

Looking good, our former neighbors, Jim and Agneose Williams.

Special guests of honor were members of Morgan's female track team who set the 800 - meter record at Harvard recently. They drew admiring looks and applause.

Note: They also set a new record in the mile relay.

They were: Willetta Page, Janet Dodson, Nellie Bullock and Roberta Belle.

Others there

June Walton, Morgan senior from Hartford, Conn., was applauded also. She is Morgan's first woman All - American in basketball. She scored over 1,000 points.

There was enthusiastic greeting, also for Morgan's Athletic Hall of Famers who were present.

They included: Ducky Ross, Jim Williams and Powell Sheffey, mentioned above; and John Bethea, Harry Gross, Mathew Marcus, Flan Couch, Jack Dennis, Alphonso Cottman and former Morgan Coach Eddie Hurt.

There was sustained applause and a standing ovation for Coach and Mrs. Hurt.

Morgan's present - day coaches in attendance were: Mrs. Larue Fields, women's basketball; Leonard Braxton, track; James Phillips, wrestling and football; and Keith Merriam and Draeeon Welch, football.

Soul Explosions provided music for dancing.

M Club officers who arranged the benefit are: Alphonso Cottman, president; Al Smith and William Brent, co - chair benefit; Margaret Smith, Carole Johnson and John Williams, secretaries; Also, Mathew Marcus treasurer; John Bethea parliamentarian; Kiya Ballard, $100 Club chair; Jack Dennis, business manager; and Sam LaBeach, chair of D.C. chapter.

Buzzy

Everybody you've turned this past week, people have been engrossed in a discussion of the Kalman (Buzzy) Hettleman incident.

What has been amazing is that many of those who expounded loud and long on the merits of the arrest have not conceded that it was an unfortunate incident. (And they are those whose own skirts are not clean).

News media have dealt amply with the pros and cons of the auto sex charge involving Hettleman. That is not the focus of this piece.

We could not let the week pass without noting that Buzzy Hettleman has been a real force for good in our community, and he didn't just start yesterday.

Our thoughts go back to the early 70s and the School Board fight to get sufficient funds for special education in the Baltimore public schools.

Time after time, we sat together — and other black School Board members — James Griffin and Larry Gibson can attest to this too . . . and hammered out the matter of providing adequate funds so that today our handicapped children are permitted inside regular classrooms. Buzzy helped engineer this.

And who can forget those awful days when the School Board was interviewing Dr. Roland Patterson, who had come from Seattle, ready with new ideas and plans.

His vote

Can never forget the long hassle over Dr. Patterson's statement about political prisoners (a true one), which some white board members played up out of proportion.

It was Buzzy's vote, joined with ours, that made the difference in the selection of Dr. Patterson.

The Patterson reorganization plan for our schools proved to be a good one. It is still in force, even though, unfortunately, Dr. Patterson no longer heads our schools.

Those familiar with operation of the city's Department of Social Service, (formerly Welfare Department), can testify it was Buzzy Hettleman, who implemented the decentralization plan originated by his predecessor, — Maud Harvey — and did a whale of a job.

Today, Hettleman is Secretary of the State

—Bishop denies racism

Bishop Stafford's statement was made at a press conference called to respond to accusations, appearing recently in a daily newspaper and the APRI - AMERICAN Newspaper, that the archdiocese allowed racial considerations to influence its stand in the controversy between the parish and LEMKO's low-income senior housing project.

"The archdiocese is not perfect," he said, "for the simple reason that it is a human institution." But he declared that it would stand on its record concerning policies of racial integration and provision of housing for the elderly, and noted that since 1978 Archbishop Borders has dedicated four major facilities for care of the elderly, St. Elizabeth's Hall in Dulaney Valley, Blessed Sacrament residence on Old York Road, the Joseph Center in Fells Point and most recently Basilica Place on Franklin Street downtown.

"Each of those institutions," he said, "serves elderly persons regardless of their race."

"We support housing for the elderly in East Baltimore," he declared," and we expect that such housing will be integrated housing. We strongly disagree with any persons who inject racism into the issues surrounding the LEMKO project."

Archbishop Borders has been kept completely informed of all details of the dispute, Bishop Stafford said, and had asked him to act in his name and with his authority in efforts to resolve it.

"Since I first became aware of the substance of the LEMKO proposal I have supported it, and I continue to do so just as long as the concerns of the people of St. Casimir's, about the physical integrity of their church, are met."

"With the help of all the people of good will in East Baltimore, I will do my utmost to bring about a solution to the problem that will be equitable for all involved," he continued. . .

Essentially, he declared, the project is a public policy issue, and he urged advocates of it to make their support known to representatives in the city and state governments.

A New Book on Black Liberation by Manning Marable
Blackwater: Historical Studies on Race, Class Consciousness and Revolution
Paperback $7.95 Hardback $19.95
BLACKWATER is a monumental historical study of the Afro-American Liberation Movement from slavery through the 1980's and beyond. Modeled on W.E.B. DuBois' classic, The Souls of Black Folk, Marable's latest work provides an overview of Black religion, political thought, economic development, and culture. Included in BLACKWATER are detailed critiques of contemporary Black Nationalism, the recent Black Rebellion in Miami, and the foundations of Marable's "theory of the twice/multiplied state." The final chapter, "The Third Reconstruction," assesses the impact of the "first" Reconstruction (1865-1877) and the "second" Reconstruction (1954-1970) on the quality of Black life and labor. Then Marable asks the inevitable question: What would we do after achieving state power?
MANNING MARABLE is a leader of the National Black Independent Political Party and a Black political economist at Cornell University's Africana Studies Center. His column "From the Grassroots" appears in over 125 newspapers in the U.S., U.K., and Africa.

Easter Tributes

AMOS - An Easter Tribute in memory of our loved one LILLIAN B. AMOS who passed away January 26, 1981
A cross, a thorny wreath
The blooming Dogwood, all are signs.
That Easter is a holy time
The thoughts of one so true and good
Renews again the overpowering grief
She is not dead, just gone before
We miss her now and evermore
Soon Easter to our loved one so dear
We'll send our love and prayers
That God will bless and keep her always in His care

ANDERSON - An Easter Tribute in memory of our loved one, SHARON ANNETTE ANDERSON, who passed away February 25,1981
Easter brings sad memories,
Of a sister who has gone to rest,
She will never be forgotten
By the ones who loved her best.
Though her smile is gone forever,
And her sweet face I cannot touch,
I shall never lose sweet Memories,
Of my sister I loved so much.
Sister, JOAN ANDERSON
Mother, MARY ANDERSON

Devoted friend, Kenneth Hooper

ARTIS - An Easter Tribute in memory of my dear mother, DOROTHY ARTIS, who passed away November 13, 1980
Tho' you're not here this Easter,
Our wishes to impart,
You know my thoughts are with you,
Even tho' we're far apart.
I'll put my wishes in writing
And hope that they'll be read,
My the mother I loved so dearly,
And whose feet have ceased to tread.
I miss you so desperately,
You were my best friend, as well as my mother.
I didn't know I would miss someone
the way I miss you.
You are always in my heart, thoughts
and mind always,
I will never forget you.
You were my bright, shinning star.
Loving Daughter, DELORES

BANKS - An Easter Tribute in memory of ——— our dear mother, RUTH BANKS, who passed away August 11, 1948:
Beloved Mother,
You will always be in our hearts,
Our feelings for you will never part.
Just to see your face again,
For one last kiss,
You, Mother, the one we miss,
On this glorious Easter Day.

'UNSPOKEN'
Sometimes along the way of life
I'd hurry thru the day
And often miss the sweet things
I'd really meant to say
Those little words of tenderness
I felt deep in my heart
But though I cannot tell you
You'll always be a part
Of every loving thought I have
Today and all the year
Because in words unspoken
I love you son, dear

SHARP - An Easter Tribute in memory of our Loved One, EVA SHARP, who passed away October 12, 1960:
On Easter Day the world becomes
The prettiest kind of place,
And thoughts of you enrich each hour,
To give it added grace.
The flowers we place upon your grave
The clouds against the blue,
Seem brighter than they were before,
Because we're always thinking of you.
FRANCES HUDSON and FAMILY

SHORTS-TUCKER-TOLSON - An Easter Tribute of love in memory of our dear ones who have passed to the Great Beyond:
ALVEROA T. SHORTS. August 30, 1940; ELIZABETH T. TUCKER - March 30, 1966; LILLIAN O. TOLSON - April 8, 1956; PHILLIP A. TOLSON - April 20, 1973:
Easter brings us memories,
Of loved ones who've gone to rest.
They will never be forgotten,
By the ones who loved them best.
Though their smiles are gone forever,
And their faces we cannot touch;
We have such precious memories,
Of dear ones we loved so much.
REV. R. WILLIS TOLSON and FAMILY

STANFORD - An Easter Tribute in memory of my Wife, EMILY STANFORD, who passed away July 4,1977:
No matter how many Easters
Come and we're still apart,
I still have that faith, my love one,
We're still in each other's heart.
So as ever on Easter morning
I'll say "Happy Easter dear,
And pretend we never had parted
For your presence I'll feel very near.
LOVING HUSBAND

WIFE and CHILDREN

WATKINS - An Easter Tribute in memory of my dear son and our brother, LAMONT T. WATKINS, who passed away October 1, 1980:
A cross, a thorny wreath,
The blooming Dogwood, all are signs,
That Easter is a Holy time.
The thoughts of one so true and good
Renews again the Overpowering grief,
He is not dead, just gone before.
We miss him now and evermore.
Soon Easter to our loved one so dear
We'll send our love and prayers
That God will bless and keep him
Always in His care.

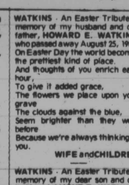
MITCHELL - An Easter Tribute in memory of our loved one, THOMASINE MITCHELL, who passed away April 12, 1979:
We are sad within our memory,
And lonely, this Easter Day,
For the one we loved so dearly
Has forever been called away.
We think of her in silence,
No eye may see us weep,
But many silent tears are shed,
When others are asleep.
God saw the road was getting rough,
So He took you Home.
MOTHER and DAUGHTER



STOKES - BENNETT An Easter Tribute in memory of our loved ones: Grandson, AARON STOKES, who passed away April 16,1972, mother, BERNIE BENNETT, who passed October 11,1972, and father, CHARLES BENNETT, who passed January 3, 1975:
We are sad within our memory,
And lonely, this Easter Day,
For the ones we loved so dearly
Have forever been called away.
We think of them in silence,
No eye may see us weep,
But many silent tears are shed,
When others are asleep.

WALKER - An Easter and Birthday Tribute in memory of our Mother and Grandmother, PAULINE WALKER, on her Birthday, April 14th and Easter, who passed away December 3, 1976:
'UNSPOKEN'
Sometimes along the way of life
We'd hurry thru the day
And often miss the sweet things
We'd really meant to say
Those little words of tenderness
We felt deep in our heart,
But though We cannot tell you
You'll always be a part
Of every loving thought We have
Today and all the year,
Because in words unspoken
We love you Mother, Dear
Very, Very Much.
SONS and DAUGHTERS and GRANDCHILDREN

Department of Human Resources.

We attended the Department of Human Resources workshop several months ago in Ocean City, where Hettleman's deputy, Charles Tildon, coordinated the event.

At the time, we noted in this column the innovative programs and professional operation were indicative of the new spirit in the entire department.

All this to say — Buzzy Hettleman — is a nell of a nice guy who has not talked about involving the poor, women and minorities in meaningful positions. He has done it and worked side by side to make sure we have a hand in determining our own destiny. Thanks Buzzy.

The Stiths

The 27th floor of the World Trade Center was aglow with beautiful people on Saturday evening.

Over 200 relatives and friends gathered there to join the Herbert J. Stiths (Frances), who were observing their 31st wedding anniversary and their retirement.

"Actually, we wanted to have friends in to say thank you for the help and friendship they have provided us through the years," Frances said.

She has been an educator for 33 years, the last 27 as media specialist in the Baltimore County sch
