Relatives, friends here for Sonja's debut

DEBUTANTE Miss Sonja Ruth Blake, 17, and escort Troy Thomas.

COLUMBIA, Md. — Relatives and longtime friends of her family were here recently for the debut of Miss Sonja Ruth Blake, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Vincent Blake of Pasture Gate Lane.

The Debutante Cotillion was sponsored by the Columbia Alumni Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority with Mrs. Alice Haskins president.

Miss Blake, a 17-year-old junior at the McDonough School in McDonough, Md. was escorted by Troy Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Thomas of Howard County.

Young Thomas is a mathmatics major at the University of Maryland and member of the old Howard County family on its own land since the Civil War.

Miss Blake won the sorority's award for her academic achievement at McDonough and her writings printed in the Columbia Flyer Newspaper Teen Column.

Mrs. Mattie Simmons, a Delta and wife of Dr. Leonard Simmons of Columbia was Sonja's sponsor.

For her debut Sonja wore a handmade designer floor-length gown of white chiffon inlaid with imported lace.

The romantic fashion with a wide skirt has an embroidered bodice of flowers duplicated in the high neckline and long cuffed sleeves. Bows and flowers in her hair matched the dress.

A week before the cotillion Mrs. Douglass (Barbara) Sands and Mrs. Sinia Reid hosted a tea at Mrs. Sands Baltimore home to honor Sonja's coming debut.

Guests were Mrs. Blake, her mother; Alysha Morgan, McDonough student; Renee Foxx, McDonogh; Gilesa McKenney and mother, Mrs. Dorothy McKenney, Columbia; Niki Gilliam and mother, Mrs. Janet Gilliam, Columbia; Frances and Cynthia Muldrow, Harvard Law School and mother, Mrs. Georgina Muldrow, Columbia; Ann Davis, Sonja's godsister, Columbia; Mrs. Sissy Bryant and daughter Christian Bryant, and niece Lisa Bryant, Baltimore; Cecelia Sands and Curtis Sands, Simone Blake, Sonja's sister; Kurt Blake, brother and Darren Reid.

The breakfast following the cotillion was hosted by Attorney and Mrs. Charles (Gwen) Clark.

Red Cross tornado tips

The season for nature's most destructive storm, the tornado, peaks in May.

With this in mind, the Red Cross has these safety tips:

State away from windows, doors and outside walls. Protect your head.

In schools, nursing homes, hospitals, factories, offices and shopping centers, go to pre - designated shelter areas. Interior hallways on the lowest floors are considered safest.

In high - rise buildings, go to interior small rooms or hallways.

In mobile homes or vehicles, leave them and go to a substantial structure. If there is no shelter nearby, lie flat in the nearest ditch, ravine, or culvert with your hands shielding your head.

The National Weather Services defines a tornado as a violent rotating column of air pendant from a thunder cloud a funnel - shaped vortex accompanied by a loud roar. Rotating winds often reach 300 mph.

IN MEMORIAM

GREEN In memory of RACHEL ELIZABETH GREEN who passed away on April 30, 1977:
It is year number four
That you are with us no more.
In person that is, because
Though it seems long, of this we are sure
The hurt of your going away,
Seems to be with us to stay.
But thoughts of happy times we shared
Take over and help the hurt to be bared.
Always missing and loving you.
Sister MARY E. HOLT AND FAMILY
Flint, Michigan

JONES - In loving memory of my husband and my father, CORNELIUS HUGO, who departed this life on April 29, 1979:
Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all.
A bitter grief, a shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you,
And speak of how you died.
To think you could not say good bye.
For all of us you did your best.
Oh, God, grant you eternal rest.
Your Loving Wife, MARY D. JONES
Daughter, CORETHA W. CUTHBERT

SMALL - In loving memory of my dear son, KENNETH N. SMALL, who passed away May 3, 1980:
Never a smile so sunny,
Never a way so dear.
Never a son so faithful,
Who brought such joy one cheer.
Never a touch so gentle,
Never a heart so true,
Never a son in all the world,
So precious, dear KENNETH, as you.
MOTHER DEAR

SMALL - In loving memory of our brother, KENNETH N. SMALL, who passed away May 3, 1980:
If we had seen you to the last
And held your dying hand,
And heard the last sign from you heart,
We would not feel so bad.
We did not know the pain you had,
We did not see you die,
We only know you went far away
And never said goodbye.
Sisters and Brothers, REGGIE - TY - DONALD
