Those effervescent Deltas have done it again. Their Annual Red and White Charity Ball, held at Hunt Valley Inn (Cockeysville) Friday, April 24 was a smashing success.

More than 400 sorors of the Baltimore Alumnae Chapter and their guests enjoyed a lively evening from 8 p.m. until 2 a.m.

The finger - popping tunes of the Commissioners Band from Washington, D.C. (replete with male and female vocalists) had everyone on the dance floor.

Guests sipped and supped in between dances, reveling in Delta hospitality.

Special features were a 50 - 50 raffle, won by Ruth Banks Crowder; a Wagon of Cheer, won by Eugene Smalley and a $100 Grand Prize, won by Elener Davis. (The $100 bill was pinned on a red elephant).

Every lady who attended was given a gift certificate for either a manicure or a facial, courtesy of Esthetique - Ina Beauty Boutique. More than 50 door prizes were also awarded. They had been donated by local businesses and included Arts and Flowers, AFRO - AMERICAN Newspaper, Baltimore Orioles, Bobbi's Place, Baycraft General Store, Brice's Hilltop Inn, Crip's Florist, D'Joint, Dutch Liquors, Ebony Fashion Fair Committee, Five Mile House, Hilton Court Liquors, Holiday Uptown Stationery, Hot House, Lake Clifton Sr. High School, Joey's Place, Kaplan's Jewelry, Kim Gray's Hair Dimensions West;

Dr. Corinda Waters feted at Retirement Dinner

By Pattie Hodges,

On Friday, May 1; many friends, family members and associates of Dr. Corinda S. Waters, Chair, Dept. of Health, Physical Education and Recreation at Morgan U., assembled at The Forum, Primrose Ave., to honor her at a Retirement Dinner.

The welcome was extended by Andrew W. Grieve, Associate Professor, HPER Faculty, MSU, who also served as master of ceremonies. James F. Mack, Assistant Professor HPER Faculty, MSU offered the prayer.

Following dinner, Mrs. Walters was lauded and applauded for her service and dedication by Dr. Andrew Billingsley, president, MSU; Dr. Barbara L. Jackson, School of Education Dean, MSU; Mrs. Erta W. Franks, Assistant Chair HPER Faculty, MSU, Miss Debora A. Whisonant, HPER Majors Club representative and Dr. Parlett L. Moore, president Emeritus, Coppin State College.

Solos were done by Mrs. Yvette Matthews, accompanied by Henry Freeman, associate professor, Music Dept., Coppin State College.

Dr. Jerlyn A. Manuel presented Dr. Waters with a plaque commemorating her on her years of service.

Dr. Waters gave remarks of thanks for the honors and for the evening. Dr. Waters, born in Vienna, Md., received her public school education in Maryland and Delaware. She attended Morgan College where she was awarded the Bachelor of Science degree. She obtained her Master's Degree in Health and Physical Education from Columbia University and the Doctor of Philosophy Degree in Health Education from the University of Md. at College Park.

During her educational career she was elected to several honor societies, including Beta Kappa Chi, Pi Lambda Psi (forerunner of the Alpaha Kappa Mu), Phi Kappa Phi and Eta Sigma Gamma.

In 1969 the College of Health, Physical Education and Recreation at College Park nominated her as the Outstanding Woman Doctoral student.

She held teaching assignments at several schools in the state of Maryland. Among these are Garnett High School, Chestertown, Md.; Lincoln High School, Frederick, Md.; Bowie State College, Bowie, Md.; Coppin State College, Baltimore and the University of Maryland at College Park.
