

Three Cents on each One Hundred Dollars of the assessable property of Chesapeake City in said levy for the maintenance and equipment of Volunteer Fire Company No. 1 of Chesapeake City, Inc.; said levy of Three Cents on each One Hundred Dollars to be in addition to the levy heretofore authorized in the Charter of said town.

98. The President and Commissioners of Chesapeake City shall have power to pass such ordinances, not contrary to law, as they may deem beneficial and necessary for the good government of the town. All general ordinances of the Town of Chesapeake City shall only be passed and in effect at the second or later meeting of The President and Commissioners of Chesapeake City after the same shall have been first offered and read, and only after notice of the substance thereof shall have been posted by the Clerk in at least two public places in said town five days or more prior to said passage.

99. The President and Commissioners of Chesapeake City shall have power to remove nuisances or any obstructions from the streets, lanes and alleys, drains and water courses within the Town of Chesapeake City or from any lot or lots adjacent thereto, and to provide for imposing a fine upon any person or persons causing or creating any such nuisance or obstruction; and to enforce such rules, penalties and regulations as they may think necessary to preserve the public health and secure the inhabitants from contagious, infectious and other diseases and to suppress drunkenness, vice and immorality and to punish all violations of the public peace from whatever cause and in connection therewith they may impose such reasonable fines, forfeitures or imprisonments as to them may appear necessary for the violations of any of the ordinances of said town, but not exceeding One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) in any one case. In the default of the payment of any fine so imposed, they may provide for the imprisonment of the offender for a period not exceeding thirty days, or until the fine is paid, which imprisonment may be in the town lockup or in the county jail.

100. They shall have power specifically, the same not being any limitation or restriction on the general rights, to pass such ordinances as they may deem necessary, viz:

For the protection and preservation of the town's property;

For the providing of suitable and proper lights upon the public streets of said town;
