The Masonic School of Instruction's Annual May Charity Ball, held at Eastwind, Pulaski Highway, Friday, May 8 from 8 p.m. until 2 a.m. was a colorful, lively, worthwhile event.

Cocktails from 8 until 9 p.m. allowed the 600 who attended to enjoy themselves and prepare for the evening's festivities.

At 8:45 special guests were escorted into the ballroom by members of the 1981 graduating class of The Most Worshipful Hiram Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. Inc., who also comprised the Ball committee.

These fellows, debonair in their white tails, did a crack, precision-step job of escorting that could parallel the Temptations.

They were Bruce Spencer, Jackson T. Scott, co-chair; Ira E. Hill, Chair; Harry A. Brown, Clifford Green, John A. Wood Jr., Raymond Green, Ronald U. Watson (drill captain), Alexander L. Hamilton, Bernard McFadden, William F. Carter, Larry Washington and William Clark.

The purpose of the May Ball was to raise money for camperships for needy youngsters who are selected by the Department of Social Services, and to aid the Lodge's Building Fund.

The May Ball Queen is selected on the basis of which contestant raises the highest amount of money for the cause.

Winning this year was Miss Frances Jeffries, who was crowned by last year's queen, Mrs. Margaret Klines. Miss Jeffries, 'Miss May Ball Queen 1981' was presented a crown, scepter, sash and a bouquet.

She was also presented the City's Citation by special guest Roscoe Herring (of the mayor's office) and a bracelet from the city of Baltimore.

The Hon. John Thornton, Most Worshipful Grand Master, Hiram Grand Lodge, presented her with a plaque on behalf of the Lodge brothers. She also received $300 for being top winner and numerous other cash prizes.

First runner-up was Mrs. Marie Talioferro who got a $200 prize. Second runner-up was Mrs. Meritta Powell who won a $100 prize. They all got bouquets of flowers, compliments of Norman Holt Florist.

Peter Moralis (aide to Senator Charles McMathias) presented the Queen and her runners-up with letters of commendation from the Senator.

Other contestants who greatly aided the cause, were Althea Hill, Delores Wallace, Jacqueline Barnett, Constance Jones, Allise Jenkins, Julia Scovens, Lorraine Hamilton, Lepena Powell, Artelia Greene, Gloria Colbert and Minnie Bryan.

Because of the hard work by all of the ladies involved, 150 needy youngsters will be able to attend camp this summer.

On hand to accept the campership monies and to congratulate the group was special guest Dr. Goeroge Musgrove, director, DSS, (and his wife Margaret), Mrs. Ernestine Jones, former acting director (and hubby William), and Mrs. Kewanne Smith, Youth Services Coordinator, DSS.

Dr. Rebecca E. Carroll feted at retirement celebration

By Pattie Hodges,
AFRO Staff Writer

Dr. Rebecca E. Carroll, former Deputy Superintendent for the Bureau of Education, Baltimore City Public Schools, retired recently after 40 years of service to Education, was feted on Sunday, May 3.

Over 500 guests gathered at The Forum, Primrose Ave. for a luncheon in honor of a lady who worked her way through the ranks to the top. The tributes were tremendous.

Presiding was Hilbert D. Stanley, principal, Lake Clifton Senior High School. The occasion was given by Mrs. Alice G. Pinderhuges, assistant superintendent, Early Childhood Education and one of the chairpersons for the affair. Ms. Jewel Churn rendered a musical selection.

Greetings were extended by Ms. Jean Adams, an Aide to Governor Hughes, who brought a resolution from the governor to the honoree.

Others bringing greetings and resolutions for her were Quentin Lawson (of the mayor's office), David Danneker (School Board President) Norman V.A. Reeves (of the City Council) and Dr. Andrew Billingsley, Morgan U. president, who gave glowing remarks on Dr. Carroll's service as a member of the Board of Regents (She's vice president).

The invocation was offered by the Rev. Carl A. Fisher, S.S.J.

Following dinner vignettes on Dr. Carroll's life (some humorous, some serious) were given by Dr. Joel Carrington, Regional superintendent, (Southwest Region), and co-chair for the affair; Robert Umphery, assistant superintendent, Educational Services; Sister Rosario of the House of Good Shepherd and Charlene Cooper Boston, a Delta sister of the honoree.

The Delta Chorale rendered a musical selection.

The family tribute was given by Ms. Constance M. Carroll, Dr. Carroll's daughter, who spoke glowingly of her mother.

The Educational Tribute was given by Dr. John L. Crew Sr., who gave remarks of appreciation on behalf of the entire educational staff.

Dr. Carroll received many gifts and presentations. Dr. Beryl Williams announced that a Rebecca Carroll Scholarship Fund was being established immediately, beginning with the proceeds from the afternoon's affair.
