

	cover $1,500 out of recent dividend due the State, &c.	No. 65
B.
BALL, WM. D.	District attorney and State's agent for Baltimore city and county, in settling the judgment in Baltimore county court in favor of State's agent, to remit the interest and allow the commissions, provided the balance be paid within 60 days after passage of resolution.	46
BALTIMORE AND OHIO R. R. CO.	William H. Tuck appointed a director in. The net profit of, of which a part of the late dividend was declared in bonds of the company, cannot be regarded as a loan by the stockholders to the company but a conversion by the latter of a portion of the net profit, which ought not to have been applied to construction, without consent of stockholders, but to have been distributed in cash amongst them in their proportionate shares.	65
	The State protests against right of said company to apply net revenues to construction as illegal and contrary to present interest of the State.
	In declaring said dividend an illegal discrimination was made to the prejudice of the State.	"
	That the treasurer in refusing to receive said dividend acted in the faithful discharge of his duty.	"
