CHAPTER 334.

Passed
Mar. 10, 1848.

An act to indemnify Sheriffs, Constables and other Ministerial officers of this State, for advertising the sale of property by virtue of any legal process to them directed.

By whom the costs of advertising are to be paid.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, whenever any sheriff, constable or other ministerial officer of this State shall hereafter by virtue of any legal process to him or them directed, give notice by publication in any newspaper or newspapers of the sale of any goods, chattles, lands or tenements of any defendant or defendants named in said process, it shall and may be lawful for the said sheriff, constable or other ministerial officer to collect and receive the cost of said publication out of said defendant or defendants as other legal costs are authorized to be collected and received, and in case said costs of advertising cannot be made out of said defendant or defendants, then and in that case the plaintiff or plaintiffs in said process shall be liable to the said officer who shall have paid the cost of the said advertising, the same to be recovered by him in the manner that other small debts are now collected.
