

CHAP. 295. and all other acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 294.

Passed Mar. 5, 1850. An act entitled, an act relative to the tax imposed by the act of eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter three hundred and twenty-five.

Proof of non-payment to exempt collector Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, in any suit instituted, or that may be hereafter instituted in this State, against any collector of tax, or his surety or sureties, for the recovery of the tax imposed by the act passed December Session, eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter three hundred and twenty-five, the said collector, or his surety or sureties, shall not be liable in said suit for such amount of said tax as shall be proved by him or them, not to have been collected or received by said collector.

CHAPTER 295.

Passed Mar. 5, 1850. An act relating to a Devise.

Preamble. WHEREAS, doubts exist in the mind of the surviving trustee hereinafter referred to, as to his power to execute a lease or leases for the ground devised to him and his late co-trustee, now deceased, by George Warner, late of Baltimore, deceased, by his will, duly proven and recorded, in trust for Mrs. Dorothea Miltenberger during her natural life, to her sole and separate use, and after her decease, in trust, for the children of the said Dorothea, as set forth in said will, and in the event of the said Dorothea dying without children, then for such further uses as are declared in said will, except in a lot or lots of ground fronting on the street and running back to the alley or alleys referred to in said will of George Warner, deceased as aforesaid; and whereas, it is represented to this General Assembly, that it will be for the advantage of the cestuique trusts above referred to, that the surviv-