—DOUGLASS

Ralph and his wife, Catherine, were among the few who came the fartherest to attend the Douglass High Alumni Assoc's second Awards Banquet.

Others who came from California, were: Sonny Pratt, son of the long - time Principal of Douglass High — Mr. Harry T. Pratt — and his wife, and, Mrs. Doris Forrest Hinton, recently retired probation officer - Los Angeles, California.

A surprise award was given to the Alumni President, Hannibal Mickens — whose untiring efforts helped to create the impetus for the beginning the Douglass High School Alumni, in 1978.

"In the time of "Reagonomics", says the Alumni President, "the possible loss of the Voter's Rights Act, reverse discrimination suits, anti - affirmative action legislation, revival of the Ku Klux Klan — and the list could go on — it is imperative that black organizations such as the Douglass High School Alumni Association stand ready to lead and accept the responsibility of seeing to it that our young people are educated and prepared to deal with overt racism head - on, as did their forefathers.

"After all, a Douglass High School produced Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall, Congressman Parren Mitchell, renowned entertainer Cab Calloway, actor Avon Long, and many other successful citizens like you and me."

To remind you.... this year Frederick Douglass moves toward its centennial anniversary with a cherished view of the past and an inspired vision of the future.

The staff and students are diligently preparing for relocation during our extensive renovation project. As we prepare to return to the Calhoun and Baker Street site, we are reviewing our curriculum in an effort to ensure that our offerings meet the needs of students at all ability levels.

The new Principal at Douglass states, "As one who was graduated from Douglass and who spent seven years as a member of the faculty, I looked forward to assuming my responsibilities as principal of our alma mater. I am convinced that the appropriate direction will be taken, we will instill in Douglassites of the eighties the desire to achieve, and that some of them will make the impact on our community, our state, and our country that alumni have made since the first group was graduated in 1889."

The Frederick Douglass Alumni Association Officers include: Hannibal Mickens Jr., Mrs. Alma Walker, Mrs. Serena G. Mills, Miss Selma Rosea, Mrs. Penny Taylor, Mrs. Patelle Harris, and William Holland.

Committee Chairpersons include: Mrs. Twilah Mallory Scarborough, Benjamin Mason, Patrick Scott, Dr. Lucia Hawthorne, Miss Lota Howard, Mrs. Eliza Johnson, Mrs. Virginia Lucas, Mrs. Luella Garner, and Mrs. Serena G. Mills.

Du Bois Circle celebrates 75th birthday at formal banquet

By Elizabeth M. Oliver

The DuBois Circle marked its 75th anniversary at a May 19 banquet at Blue Crest North complete with champagne and a cake a - blaze with candles.

The impressive ceremonies opened with a moment of silence for a member, Mrs. Lillian Murphy, who died a few days before.

Honorary members saluted were Mesdames Alice Arrington, Inez Keys and Beatrice Reesby.

The club, founded in 1906, has as present officers: Mrs. Edna O. Campbell, President - Historian; Mrs. Melissa Perdue, Vice President; Miss Betty Williams, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Priscilla Lansey, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Leona Carpenter, Financial Secretary; Miss Josephine Lansey, Treasurer.

The 75th anniversary souvenir booklet described the founding days thus:

"Realizing their need to be aware of and informed about current issues of local, national and global significance, these women went a step further and organized a club, named it in honor of the distinguished scholar, mentor and activist, William Edward Burghardt DuBois, and became on Jan. 5, 1906, an auxiliary of the men's segment of the Niagara Movement.

The charter members were Miss Caroline Cook, Mrs. Minnie L. Gaines, Mrs. Margaret Gregory Hawkins, Mrs. Eva Jennifer and Mrs. Garnett Waller.

The following named women were the first officers: Margaret G. Hawkins, President; Annie R. H. Miller, Vice President; Minnie L. Gaines, Recording Secretary; Jane Waller, Corresponding Secretary and Eva Jennifer, Treasurer.

During the early years from 1906 to 1910, the following women were invited to join the organization:

Mesdames: Helen B. Irvin, Beatrice Braxston, Ashbie Hawkins, Halligan H. Burton, W.A.C. Hughes, Louis Fenderson, Harvey Johnson, Daniel Brown, Mesdames: Bertha K. Hurst, Howard Young, Peter C. Neal, Daniel G. Hill, Heber Wharton, A. J. Waller, Beatrice Hawkins, Annie R. H. Miller.

Misses: Annie Creditt, Edna Hargrove, Fannie Alexander, cecie Combs, Estelle Wilson, Lucy Slowe, Sarah L. Jackson.

The 75th anniversary honorees who received plaques are:

DR. REBECCA E. CARROLL — a native of Baltimore, received her formative schooling at St. Francis Academy and was graduated from the Frederick Douglass High School.

She completed studies at Coppin Normal School, Morgan State College, the University of Chicago and the University of Maryland from which she received a Doctorate in Education.

Having been a part of the Baltimore City Public School System for 44 years, Dr. Carroll retired Jan. 1, 1981 after serving as deputy superintendent of the Bureau of Education for six years.

Her experiences as a wife and mother, scholar, world traveller and lay church leader stimulate her to continue to engage in activities that will improve the quality of life for the many people she touches.

MS. HILDA E. FORD — attended Brooklyn College and the College of St. Rose, and received training in Governmental Operations at the State University of New York and in Community Relations at Cornell University. She was subsequently employed by the state of New York as Chief Negotiator in the Governor's Office of Employee Relations, as an Assistant Director in the Department of Civil Service and as a Senior Manager in the Employment Service.

In 1977, Ms. Ford came to Baltimore to assume the position of Director of the Baltimore City Civil Service Commission, an agency which has jurisdiction over 24,000 classified employees.

Her active membership in professional organizations is indicative of her desire for continued enlightenment in her chosen field in order to render greater service.

A strong believer in the city of Baltimore, Ms. Ford ever seeks to promote the vital role of the Civil Service and its impact upon this community.

MRS. JESSIE M. RATTLEY — a native of Birmingham, Ala., is a graduate of Hampton Institute with a Degree in Business Education and Secretarial Science.

Upon graduation, she established the Business Department at Huntington High School in Newport News, Va. and in 1952, she founded the Peninsula Business College which provides an opportunity for disadvantaged youths and adults to be trained for careers in business.

In 1970, Mrs. Rattley was elected to the Newport News City Council as the first black and the first woman.

Having been active in the National League of Cities through affiliation with numerous committees and task forces, she was elected its President in 1979. In her capacity as leader of this organization, she has lead delegations of elected officials to the People's Republic of China, Hungary, Cuba, Panama and France. Her involvement in the political arena has enabled her to make significant contributions to decency, dignity and human rights for all persons.

MISS VERONICA TYLER — a native of Baltimore and a graduate of the Frederick Douglass High School, the Peabody Conservatory of Music and the Juilliard School of Music. A winner of the Metropolitan Opera auditions in 1962, she has since won numerous coveted prizes.

Miss Tyler made her professional debut in Baltimore as a soloist with the Baltimore Chamber Orchestra and has since appeared with most major American symphony orchestras.

A major facet in her career, which has included opera, oratorio, symphonic engagements and recitals, has been that of encouraging young musicians who exhibit artistic potential.

Miss Tyler presently serves as advisor to the Peabody Administration to identify promising artists and students from disadvantaged and - or minority groups.

Mrs. Rattley, the guest speaker, offered a challenge to DuBois Circle members to meet the needs of the young and old of their race "who are now in more grave circumstances than ever before in history."

Mrs. Rattley revealed statistics which showed black citizens owning a scant one percent of businesses but consuming more food, cars, alcohol and cigaretts and other items than any other segment of society.

Others on the program were, Mesdames Campbell, Carpenter, Turpin, Harris, Jackson, Bright, and Miss Williams who gave "Reflections from a Notebook."
