

CHAPTER 20.

1811.

An act to give validity to a deed from George M'Cullough and Isabella his wife, to David Strohm.

Passed Dec. 27, 1811.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a deed of conveyance from George M'Cullough and Isabella his wife, of Lancaster county, in the state of Pennsylvania, to David Strohm of the same place, of a tract of land called Millfield, lying and being in Cecil county, dated on the twenty-first day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, and acknowledged before J. H. Cromwell and James Sims, two justices of the peace for Cecil county, shall have the same force, operation and effect, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as if the said deed had been recorded according to law, among the land records of Cecil county: Provided, That the said deed shall be recorded among the land records of Cecil county, within six months after the passage of this act: And provided also, That no title acquired, or that shall hereafter be acquired before the recording of said deed, by any person, from the said George M'Cullough, by deed or other conveyance, shall be in any manner affected or impaired by the passage of this act.

Deed shall be valid as if recorded according to law, provided it be recorded within six months. &c.

CHAPTER 21.

A Supplement to the act entitled, An act to empower the inhabitants of the town of Havre-de-Grace, to elect the commissioners thereof.

Passed Dec. 27, 1811.

WHEREAS, By the second section of the act to which this is a supplement, the commissioners of the town of Havre-de-Grace were directed to call a meeting of the people of said town on a certain day therein mentioned, for the purpose of choosing judges to hold an election for electing the commissioners of said town, which they have neglected to do, in consequence of which, the law has never been carried into effect: Therefore,

Preamble.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the people of the town of Havre-de-Grace, to assemble at some convenient house in said town, on the first Monday in January next, and on the same day in every

People shall elect judges, who shall hold an election for commissioners. Their powers, &c.