

levy court of Baltimore county, whether under the provisions of the said act, the said additional buildings can be considered as part of the said ware-house, and it appearing reasonable that the said additional buildings should be considered as part of the said ware-house: Therefore,

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That if the levy court of Baltimore county, or the majority of them shall approve of the building or buildings adjoining or adjacent to the said ware-house, built by the said James Calhoun, senior, as convenient and safe for the inspection of tobacco; in such case the said building or buildings, or such thereof as may be so approved of, shall thereafter be taken and considered as part of the said ware-house, subject to the same inspection, and entitled to the same storage, as the said ware-house now is.

Levy court of Baltimore county approving certain buildings, they shall be considered as part of the ware house for its inspection.

CHAPTER 53.

An act for the relief of George Page, an insolvent debtor. Passed Dec. 27, 1811.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the judges, or any one judge of Prince George's county court, in the recess of the said court, be, and they, or any one of them is hereby authorised and directed to extend to George Page, the benefit and relief of the act of assembly passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, entitled, "An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," and the supplements thereto, without compelling him to give the full notice to his creditors required by law in similar cases; and to extend and afford to the said George Page, all the benefits, advantages and provisions of the said act and the supplements thereto, in the same manner and upon the same terms and conditions, as if the said George Page had given the full notice to his creditors as aforesaid.

Extending the benefits of insolvent laws.

CHAPTER 54.

A supplement to the act entitled, "An act authorising a Lottery to raise a sum of money to build a Church in Charles county, passed at November session eighteen hundred and seven. Passed Dec. 27, 1811.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Managers and