

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

sembly, these agencies should in each instance be self-supporting, since they have been established at the request of the people they serve and should be supported without the necessity for any subsidies on the part of the State; and

WHEREAS, It is the desire of the members of the General Assembly that these several agencies be studied in order to determine the fees imposed and whether as a matter of fact each is individually self-supporting; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Fiscal Research Bureau be requested to make a complete study of the several agencies set up within the framework of the State government to examine and regulate various occupational and business groups, in order to determine the amounts of fees charged in each instance and whether the agencies are individually self-supporting; and be it further

Resolved, That the Fiscal Research Bureau be requested to report the results of its findings to the Legislative Council and to the members of the General Assembly, together with recommendations for making the several agencies individually self-supporting.

Approved March 26, 1956.

No. 5

(Senate Joint Resolution 15)

Senate Joint Resolution expressing the deepest sympathy of the General Assembly of Maryland over the untimely passing of Miss Jane Sauer.

The members of the General Assembly of Maryland learned with shock and deepest regret of the untimely passing of Miss Jane Sauer on January 16, 1956.

Since 1941 Jane Sauer had served the Legislature during every session, regular and special, and through her work in the Department of Legislative Reference she was known and respected by hundreds of members of the General Assembly, past and present.

She also since 1941 served on the staff of the Legislative Council, and in both capacities took an ardent and active part for fifteen years in the formulation of legislation in this State.

"Miss Jane", as she was affectionately known by many, will be long remembered and deeply mourned. In her passing the members of the General Assembly have lost a friend and a valued associate.
