What a ball was had by all. Many went on to after parties hosted by various Las Amigas members, one of which was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, (club member Loretta) at their Brompton Rd. home.

The Baltimore Chapter officers are Carolyn Marshall, president; Mary Wren, president - elect; Mary Eastman, vice-president; Christine Lewis, recording secretary; Pamela Sewell, corresponding secretary; Mary Ellen Smackum, treasurer; Shirley Drew, historian; and Loretta Smith, club reporter.

Other members include Margaret Alston, Jacqueline Dutton, Roberta Epps, Carolyn Samuels, Ann White, Ernestine Woodhous, and Lois Wysinger.

Sally Johnson retirement luncheon

There are retirement celebrations and then there are retirement celebrations, but the Retirement Luncheon in honor of Mrs. Sallie Johnson held at the Holiday Inn Belmont Friday, July 17 was a winner.

Mrs. Johnson, who recently retired from the Health Care Financing Administration and SSA after logging 37 years of service, (starting at the old downtown Candler Building), was hosted and roasted in style by the nearly 100 co-workers, family members and friends who gathered there in her honor.

Emcee for the occasion was Verna Day, the honoree's good friend and co-worker, who sparked the afternoon with humourous wit which accurately spelled out Mrs. Johnson's many great qualities while giving a verbal "This is Your Life" capsule of the honoree's career.

The head table included, along with Mrs. Johnson and her husband Willie, the honoree's sons Reginald and Lamont; Bernestine Davis and Nathan Randall, friends Lou Hogan, Health Administration Division Chief and Mrs. Ruth Logan, supervisor.

Following grace by Mrs. Marjorie Lewis and a delicious luncheon, words of inspiration were spoken by Lou Hogan and Ms. Logan, with further glowing reflections on the honoree's life and career done by Ms. Madleine McClellan and Ms. Adaline Boyd.

Never has this reporter witnessed a retirement where there were as many echoes of "She sure is," and "that's true," at the glowing remarks on the honoree's warmth, quiet, non-argumentative manner, willingness to listen to other's problems, ability to see the other person's point of view, and her kindness to co-workers and firends throughout her career.

Other co-workers and friends from her church, (Mt. Hebron, North Ave.), who spoke on her behalf were Sarah Boyd, Charlotte Bennett and Alma Rucker, Marie Granger and her sister Mrs. Willie H. Manning, (of New York), and her husband.

A beautiful white sheetcake, trimmed with green and pink rosebuds and inscribed "Congratulations Sallie Johnson on your Retirement," served as dessert and a center of attention.

The honoree received numerous lovely gifts and cards, rounding out a loveley tribute to an obviously well-liked lady.

Those in attendance, in addition to her sister, Mrs. Manning, were her brother-in-law Carey Manning, Edith Robinson, sister, and Cheryl Manning, neice, all of New York.

On the committee for the retirment celebration were Mrs. Mary Bouchet, chairperson; Mrs. Dorothy Carvens, Ms. Midlred Ross, Mrs. Elizabeth Bowling and Michael Ross.

Among others in attendance were:

Maude Byrd, Dorothy Carvens, B. Hairston, Irene Costley, V. Meade, E. Crockett, M. Ward Lorrelne Ross, Gloria Johnson, A. Wilson, M. Lewis, M. Granger, Margie Lewis, Shirley McRae, A. Seigel, C. Wells, A. West, Ruth Logan, W. Curnaies, Elva Holcomb, A. Lymberg, V. Palmer Geneva Ward, A. Frantz, I. Turnese, H. Chandler, Donna Berry, Jean Hale, Lou Hogan, Mary Muriel, C. Bennet, S. Arnelle, Alma Rucker, Alma Ashley, Adaline Boyd, Eva Pittman, Lula Elkins, Ethel Singletary, Bernice Marlow, Lamont Johnson, Reginald Johnson, Jesse Rucker, Karen Crosby, Debra Banks Sylvia Beinesh and Gloria Davis.
