Act of 1801 to have operation

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED By the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this law, the public roads in Charles county shall be kept in repair in pursuance of the provisions of the act entitled, An act relating to the public roads in the several counties therein mentioned, passed at December session eighteen hundred and one; and the said law is hereby declared to be in full force and operation as to the said county; and the levy court of the said county are hereby directed to meet as soon after the passage of this law as is practicable to carry its provisions into operation, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Overseers neglecting to warrant—penalty.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That any overseer appointed under the act to which this a supplement, who shall neglect to collect or warrant for the penalty or penalties forfeited by any person or persons failing to attend or to send on the road their quota of hands when called on in compliance with the requisitions of this law, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect, five dollars, to be recovered in the manner heretofore prescribed.

Roads wanting repair to reported—levy.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be the duty of every overseer of the said road, upon finding any portion of such road which he is appointed to superintend so far out of repair as to render it oppressive to the inhabitants residing within its limits to keep such portion in repair, to report the same to the next levy court; and it shall in such case be lawful for the said levy court to levy on the assessable property of said county, such sum not exceeding one hundred dollars as they shall deem it expedient to contribute toward the repairing such road.

4. AND BE IT ENACTED, That any overseer who shall neglect to report the same to the next levy court, shall be liable to a fine of ten dollars, to be recovered in the manner heretofore prescribed.

5. AND BE IT ENACTED, That any overseer who shall neglect to keep such portion in repair, shall be liable to a fine of ten dollars, to be recovered in the manner heretofore prescribed.
