Bounds.

CHAPTER 182.

An act to enlarge the bounds of Centreville, and for other purposes.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Town of Centreville in Queen Ann's county, shall be included in the following metes and bounds, that is to say; beginning at the meadow fence of John T. Miers, Esq. at the place where it intersects the mill branch and running from thence with a straight line to a large oak tree, standing in the field of Richard T. Earle, Esquire, then with a straight line to a locus tree, standing at the mouth of the lane leading from the main road to the stable of Doctor Robert Goldsborough, then by and with the fence on the east side of the said lane to the back garden fence of the said Doctor Goldsborough, then by and with the said garden fence, and the adjoining lot fence until it intersects Water-street extended, then to the corner of the garden fence of William Carmichael, Esquire, including his stable and ice house, then by and with said fence and the adjoining lot fences to the road leading from Centreville, to the dwelling house of Thomas P. Turpin, Esq. then across the said road to a valley nearly opposite thereto in the field of the said Thomas B. Turpin, Esquire, leading from said road to the gravelly run branch, until it intersects the said branch, then by and with the said branch across the main road leading to Church Hill, until it intersects a drain leading from said branch by the spring house, in John T. Miers' lot lately purchased from Henry Darden, Esquire, then by and with the said drain to a large cedar tree standing in the said lot near the head of the said drain, then with a straight line through the lots of the said John T. Miers and Thomas Murphey, to the corner of the out fence of the lot of the said Murphey lying on the south side of the main road leading to Centreville landing, then by and with the said fence to the lot of the late Ebenezer Covington, then through the said lot of Covington, in a straight line with the mill house, until it intersects the said mill branch, then with a straight line to the beginning.

Survey and plat.

2. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners of said town or a majority of them shall be, and hereby are authorised and required to cause the metes and bounds described, in the first section of this act, to be surveyed and suitable boundaries to be designated as boundaries of the said town, to be placed at the beginning and at the termination of each line and that the said commissioners or a majority of them, shall cause a plot of the said survey to be made and duly certified to be returned to and recorded in the office of the clerk of Queen Ann's county court, among the land records of said county.

Hog styes forbidden.

3. And be it enacted, That no hog stye shall be erected, nor shall hogs be kept in any other manner whatever, in said town or suffered to go at large therein under the penalty of two dollars, to be recovered of any person or persons so often as he, she or they shall erect such stye or keep hogs in any other manner, or suffer them to go at large as aforesaid, and the commissioners or a majority of them are hereby authorised, empowered and directed to remove or cause to be removed, any hog stye or hogs that may be found in said town or any other nuisance whatever that may be deemed injurious to the health of the citizens thereof.
