

of the mountain by way of Jeremiah Durst's; then to head of north branch of middle fork at Buck Mason's; then with said north fork to the mouth of Black Hawk, at Stemple's mill seat; then to mouth of Monroe's run by way of Ohaver's mill; then to James Resh's in back woods; then to Horse pond run by way of Ashford Warnick's then with said run to the place of beginning at Mary Otto's."

- 1892 Ch. 336. Changes a portion of the line between the 3d and 12th election district to run as follows:

"Beginning at the residence of James Madison Durst, then running in a straight line to the top of Meadow Mountain, then with said mountain to James Ross' residence, then by direct line to Charles O. Warnick's residence, thence by way of Jacob Hoovers to county road near Benedict Beachy's farm."

- 1894 Ch. 600. 1st and 10th election districts divided so as to make two voting precincts in the first election district and one voting precinct in the tenth district.

- 1896 Ch. 394. Divides the 7th election district into two precincts as follows:

"The first precinct shall be the territory within the following outlines to wit: All that part of said election district number seven as now laid out and established, east of the Hooppole road and on the east side of Third street, in the town of Oakland and the Aurora road. The second precinct shall be the territory of said district, as now laid out and established, on the west side of Third street, in the town of Oakland and the Aurora road."

- 1898 Ch. 4. Additional election district No. 14 erected from the 7th election district with the following bounds:

"all that part of district number seven as now laid out and established, lying east of the Hooppole road; Third street in the town of Oakland and Aurora road shall be known and designated as district number seven; and all that part lying west of Hooppole road; Third street in the town of Oakland and the Aurora road, shall be known and designated as district number fourteen."

- 1898 Ch. 36. Additional election district, No. 13, erected from portions of the 10th and 1st election district with the following bounds:

"Beginning at the mouth of Lost Land Run, and running with the northeast branch of said run to the Oakland and Bloomington road on the top of Backbone Mountain; thence, with said road along the top of said mountain, east, to what is known as the "Backbone Farm," above Swanton; thence, following the Mount Zion road, south, to the mouth of "Three Fork Run," at Chaffee; thence, with the Potomac River to the beginning."