United Nations' Diplomats visit Baltimore

UN DIPLOMATS CAME TO BALTIMORE representing Ireland, France, the Netherlands, Sudan, Bahamas, Denmark, Australia, Kenya, Nepal, China and West Germany. Above, Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Gray and daughters entertained Jacob DeHaan of the Netherlands.

MRS. PHYLLIS DOUGLASS was hostess (L) to Miss Emer Kilcullen, Ireland, seen being made an honorary citizen of Baltimore by Dr. Hilbert Stanley, of the mayor's office.

MR. AND MRS. FRED BAILEY were hosts to H. E. Ambassador Alexander Otto of Austria. On Friday, the diplomats visited Polytechnic Institute, Western High School and School for the Arts. On Saturday, they were guests of the Rouse Company and toured Columbia, Harbor Place, World Trade Center, Cross Street Market and Federal Hill.

MELVIN BOARDLEY (L), a host, chats with Zhang Zifan of China. Other hosts and hostesses were Messers and Mesdames J. Elliott Green, John J. Smeyne, Walter Brown, J. C. Reaves, Earl L. Hagen, Joel Newton.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES BROWN were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Hanspal of India. Other hosts and hostesses were Messers and Mesdames Robert Chapman, Samuel Zervitz, William Bateson, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Owings, Dr. and Mrs. Doward Patterson, Col. and Mrs. Louis Beck, Miss Beverly Marable and Mrs. Carolyn Chissell.

PURPOSE OF THE VISIT was to give foreign diplomats an opportunity to gain better understanding of people and institutions of America and give Americans an opportunity to learn more about international issues and the work of the United Nations. Above, Mrs. Arlene Holden chats with H. E. James K. Wagara, Kenya

Awards were presented to the Rev. Edgar L. Reid, pastor, Gospel Tabernacle Baptist Church, who was presented by Mrs. Mary B. Ames and to Mrs. Ida T. Russell, who was presented by Mrs. Margaret Dyer.

Both got NAACP Merit Award plaques for dedicated service to the organization.

Dr. Charles E. Watts (who was absent due to illness) is to have a plaque presented to him at his home for over 50 years of service.

Wilbert Walker received the "Golden Heritage Award" for an additional $1,000 donation beyond his life membership.

Recognition of Life Members was done by Mrs. Carrie Y. Bowie. They are Joan B. Cook, Gracie Walker, Ronald B. Jones, Janice L. Cheatham, and Gwen B. Lowery.

Following expressions of appreciation by Mrs. Bernice S. White, who served as chairperson for the event, Father Maurice T. Blackwell, who had given the eloquent introduction and blessing, pronounced an equally eloquent benediction to a truly inspirational evening.

Provident plans gala fundraiser

Dr. Vivien Thomas

Mrs. Kitty Broady

Nathaniel DeVoe

The Provident Hospital Board of Trustees in cooperation with the hospital's medical staff and auxiliary will host its fourth Annual Occasion Extraordinaire on Sunday, Nov. 15, from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

This year's affair will spotlight three persons who have made significant contributions to the health care community.

Dr. Vivien Thomas is being honored for his outstanding research on animals which paved the way for many modern surgical techniques, most notably the "blue baby" operation developed by Dr. Alfred Blalock of the Johns Hopkins University.

Mrs. Kitty Broady, Director of the Mayor's Station and Upton Multi-purpose Center, will be recognized for her tireless campaigns to promote adequate mental health programs for all people.

Nathaniel DeVoe has dedicated many, many hours to Provident Hospital as a volunteer and is also being honored.

This annual event attracts people from all over the city with its live music, money wheels and other forms of entertainment.

Tickets are $25 each and can be obtained by calling 225 - 2293. All proceeds will be donated to the hospital's Development Fund.

Members of the planning committee are: Vashti Christmas, Chairperson; Anita Watson, George L. Jude, Emma Dudley, Geraldine Barbour, Carolyn Willis, John Cathorn, Anethea Williams, Charles Turner, Sr., Rosetta Sands, Kathryn Frisby, John H. Murphy III, Myrtice Bennett, Bernina Grady, Frances Mitchell and Bernice McDaniels.

Great savings, great taste.

$1.40 worth of great savings. Just for buying delicious Master Blend Coffee now.

Now you can save plenty by buying an extra can of Maxwell House® Master Blend® Coffee. Buy any size can of Master Blend and get 40¢ off with the coupon below. Buy a second can and we'll mail you back a dollar coupon good on your next purchase. That's $1.40 just for buying Master Blend now.*

Master Blend is the delicious 100% pure ground coffee that can save you money. It's specially blended and roasted to expand the beans and release more flavor, so that our 13-ounce can makes just as many cups as a 16-ounce can of ordinary ground coffee. Prepare it using the same number of scoops you normally use, because it's not concentrated or flaked. You get a pound's worth of flavor but you pay for only 13 ounces.

So enjoy the great taste of Master Blend and take advantage of these great savings now.
