2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be the duty of the said commissioners before they act as such, to lodge the bond made and entered into as aforesaid, in the office of the clerk of Washington county court, there to be recorded, and upon such bond, or any office copy thereof, suit or suits may be instituted against the obligors therein or any of them, or their legal representatives, for any breach or non-compliance with the conditions of the same.

CHAPTER 5.

An act to lay out and make public a road in Cecil County.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John C. Hull, Levy Tyson, Henry Reynolds, Ezekiel Giberson and John Ewing be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners for the purposes of this act, and that they or a majority of them are hereby authorized and required to survey and lay out a road not exceeding thirty feet wide, clear of ditches, beginning at a certain point to be fixed on by said commissioners or a majority of them, on the public road leading from Elkton to the Blue Ball Tavern through the lands of Elk Forge Company, and running a south easterly course to the lands of John Scarborough, and the heirs of Benjamin York, thence continuing the said course along the lines of the said Scarborough and York's heirs, to the line of the heirs of John McCreery and Robert Carter, thence along the line of the heirs of said McCreery, and Carter, passing over Little Elk Creek, thence continuing said south easterly course, as the said commissioners or a majority of them shall judge best, until it intersects the great road leading from Elkton to Fair Hill; Provided, That the said road shall not be made to pass through the buildings, yards, gardens or orchards of any person or persons without the consent of the owner or owners thereof.
