Sympathy

Sympathy to the family of Anthony Pedro Thompson — a talented and handsome young man, who would have marked his 21st birthday on January 31st.

He was eulogized on Monday afternoon at All Saints Catholic Church. Services were concluded on Wednesday at St. Francis Catholic Church in Lumberton, N.C.

Young Thompson, a graduate of Polytechnic High, was a student at Emory - Riddle Aeronautical University in Daytona Beach, FL, when he died December 22. (This is the school often referred to as the "Harvard of the Sky.").

His ambition was to become an aeronautical engineer.

When grief stricken family and friends assembled for the wake in Baltimore on Monday afternoon, their grief was so pronounced that for fully a half hour there was not a murmur in the beautiful chapel.

With the sun shining through the stained glass windows, a neighbor could understand when a sole sob came from a young male relative. It was truly heartbreaking — such a young and beautiful person.

Skilled

The youngster was the son of James and Janet Thompson of Mohawk Ave. He was born when the family lived in Turner's Station and grew up in New Shiloh Baptist Church.

In the family tribute, it was recalled that he enjoyed building and flying remote control aircraft — spent hours assembling them, often without plans.

In high school, he played football, basketball and enjoyed bowling. He worked at Fast Saints Rectory. In addition, he was talented as a musician, played the piano and say for relaxation.

Besides his parents, he is survived by brother, Shawn; sisters, Gwendolyn, Rosalyn and Kimberly; and brothers-in-law, Lawrence L. Nelson and Lawrence Hamlett.

Friends and neighbors in the Forest Park area served as pallbearers. Morton Funeral Home handled arrangements.

More sadness

Sympathy cards to Doris Street, the Social Security worker of Columbus Drive, and other members of her family.

Her brother, James W. Johnson ("Jimmi"), 45, the jazz musician, well known here and in musical circles, was eulogized on Tuesday at Union Baptist Church.

Other survivors, another sister, Sarah Mae Johnson; and a son, Eric Walker Johnson, 16.

The large turnout at the memorial service on Monday evening at Elizabeth Phillips Funeral Home, and at the funeral, attest to the esteem in which Johnson was held.

They remember his long battle to overcome cancer and his interest in training young musicians at his 25th St. studio.

Back in the Fifties, Johnson played basketball and enjoyed bowling. He worked at the Saints Rectory. In addition, he was talented as a musician, played the piano and say for relaxation.

Besides his parents, he is survived by brother, Shawn; sisters, Gwendolyn, Rosalyn and Kimberly; and brothers-in-law, Lawrence L. Nelson and Lawrence Hamlett.

Friends and neighbors in the Forest Park area will pay a bonus at the rate of $100 per net additional alumni donor in 1981-1982 (compared with 1980-1981), up to a maximum of 250 new donors, this bringing the challenge to $55,000.

Jarvis awarded Challenge grant

HAWKINS, TX — Dr. C. A. Berry, President of Jarvis Christian College, has announced that the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation of Palo Alto, California, and the Bush Foundation, St. Paul, Minnesota, in a cooperative program of challenge grants have jointly awarded a challenge grant of $55,000 to Jarvis Christian College for the 1981 - 1982 academic year.

The challenge, known as the Bush Challenge, is designed to help increase alumni annual giving in historically Black four - year private colleges in the United States. College eligible to apply for this program are the 41 current and past members of the United Negro College Fund (UNCF).

The Bush Foundation will match only unrestricted gifts to Jarvis Christian College. They will match dollar-for-dollar increased, unrestricted receipts from individual alumni over 1980-1981 actual receipts up to $30,000 and President Berry, in accepting this challenge, joined the president of the Jarvis Christian College - Southern Christian Institute National Alumni and Ex-Student Association, Dr. LaMar Clark of Detroit, Michigan in commending the Bush Challenge Program. The program's success dispels a myth that the graduates of Black institutions don't have the same concern for their alma maters as did the alumni of other colleges, and that they wouldn't support their schools the same way.

The Bush Foundation in 1972 originated a program of annual alumni fund matching grants in 16 private colleges in Minnesota and the Dakotas.
