MISCELLANY

Verbal orchids to Lillian Rogers Parks who is 85 years young and who was feted with a surprise birthday party on last Sunday, hosted by Neighbors, Inc. and a committee composed of Marilyn Brown, Marine Mahoney, Loretta Newmann, Judy Siblig.

Petite Mrs. Parks (419''), and her mother, Maggie Rogers, were White House maids during eight administrations, from William Howard Taft to Dwight D. Eisenhower and she wrote about her experiences in a book titled "My Thirty Years Backstairs at the White House." You will probably remember the mini - television series, titled, "Backstairs at the White House," a nationally - acclaimed presentation that was nominated for 11 Emmy Awards. Mrs. Parks acted as a consultant during the production, and her book from which the series was taken was on the best seller list for 26 weeks. It was written with Frances Spatz Leighton and was published in 1961.

William B. Branch, award - winning playwright and producer delivered the first 1982 Andrew W. Mellon - sponsored lecture on Wednesday, February 3 in Alain Locke Hall on Howard University campus. He spoke on "The Challenge of the Black Writer."

Since 1951 Branch has been recognized in the United States and abroad as one of the most talented and productive literary artists of our time. Among his many dramatic efforts are "A Medal for Willie," "In splendid Error," and "A Wreath For Udoma." Sandra D. Milloy is chair of the Andrew W. Mellon Committee, Department of English.

The Fifth Annual Nathaniel Stinson Careet Awareness Fair will be held at the DC Armory (Starplex) March 16 - 18. The Prometheans, Inc. are aiming to exceed last year's record number of role models and exhibitors. The theme of the fair is, "Invest in Your Future — Explore A Career."

Beginning Feb. 1st the Prometheans' Adopt - A - School Program is being run by volunteers and DC Public Schools' staff. The office will continue at Room 503, NEA Center and the phone number 833 - 4262 will be available at least until April 1, 1982. Sam Ethridge and Judge Luke Moore are co - chairs of the Adopt - A - School Program.

The Green Door, a private non - profit agency was founded in 1977 as a rehab program for former and present patients in transition from the hospital to a new life in the community. Through the exemplary leadership of Mrs. W. Averell Harriman, over the past five years as a member of the agency's Board of Directors, much support has been enlisted for the chronically, mentally disabled.

So on the fifth anniversary, celebrated recently, an art exhibition entitled, "Emerging Images: Art by the Green Door Family" was dedicated to Mrs. Harriman. She was saluted for her commitment to the Green Door which has contributed greatly to the further growth and development of the program.

On the occasion a short program was given. It consisted of the welcome by Joel I. Klein, Green Door Board of Trustees; remarks by Mayor Marion Barry Jr.; resolutions by Councilmembers, John Ray and H. R. Crawford; a keynote speech by Oliver T. Carr Jr.; the proclamation by Mayor Barry; the acceptance by Mrs. Harriman and a closing thought by Diane McJordan, member of the Green Door. A reception was held at the Green Door's Club House where awards were presented.

Among the awardees were Lillian Brown and Brian Kirk who received plaques for dedicated service. Following this there was a reception and the exhibit at the Distriet Building. Guests from mental Health Agencies were in attendance plus several members of the City Council.

DC CHAMBER DINNER Sharing the podium with honoree Dr. Eddie Mazique at the DC Chamber of Commerce's Awards dinner was past president Mrs. Margaret Stewart, businesswoman.

Valentine's Day will always be popular

By the time Wil Shakespeare penned these Valentine lines for the fair Ophelia in 1601, the custom of exchanging messages of love and affection had been established for several hundred years in Western Civilization - and it's a tradition which remains more alive than ever, according to Joy Sweeney of American Greeting Corporation.

One measure of the popularity of Feb. 14th's love-in can be found in greeting cards purchases making Valentine's Day the year's second-largest card -buying holiday, after Christmas.

Even the U.S. Postal Service is honoring this special day with a stamp bearing the word "Love" spelled in flowers, along with a poster encouraging its use. The postal service is anticipating the estimated 800 million Valentine's Day messages that will be exchanged this year.

Deltas celebrate 69th birthday at Founders Luncheon

By Mabs Kemp

The Washington, DC Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. hosted the 69th anniversary of the Sorority's birthday, last week, with the Annual Founders' Day Observance, held in the International Ballroom of the Washington Hilton Hotel.

Approximately 900 persons, including sorors, friends of sorors - both male and female; sister Greeks, city officials and representatives of major organizations from throughout the Metropolitan Area were present to hear general chairperson Peggy Bethel, who presided, set the pace for "Deltas Impacting the Eighties - Uniting Sister Greeks."

Soror Barbara Mosley's WAC's president, spoke about the strategies and challenges of the 80s while outlining the directives of National President, Mona Bailey. With greetings from Mayor Marion Barry and DC Council Chairman, Arrington Dixon, the pre - luncheon segment of the program got rapidly underway.

Mayor Barry exalted Delta women as women of achievement and dedication from the Sorority's inception in 1913 and since 1921, the year of the birth of the Washington Alumnae Chapter. He said: "Deltas continue to make difference in our community — in every aspect of city life. Deltas have set the tone for the Eighties." In his remarks, Councilman Dixon noted that "Deltas have always cut the issues that are important!"

Following remarks by Delta's Executive Director, Angie Current, who represented National President Mona Bailey and national staff members, Barbara Mosely recognized organizations and sister Greeks who were present to participate in the celebration.

They included: Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Jack and Jill, Omega Wives, Coalition of 100 Black Women, the National Association of Black Women Attornies, the Young Women's League, the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs, the National Council of Negro Women, the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, the Links, Chi Eta Phi Sorority, Alpha Wives, the Kappa Silhouettes, Tau Delta Phi, the Advisory Neighborhood Council members, Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority.

Also Area Chapters, including North Virginia Alumnae, Montgomery County Alumnae, Prince George's County Alumnae, Federal City Chapter, Undergraduate Chapters. Then there was the invocation by WAC's Chaplain, Vyola F. Lincoln and a selection by the Chapter Choir under the direction of Soror Delores H. Spaulding.

The after - lunch segment of the program began with "In Memorium," led by Soror E. Jean Christian, WAC's second vice president, assisted by Soror Patricia Harris, Charter Member Jennie B. Shief and Eastern Regional Director, Dorothy Stanley. Soror Christian eulogized the late Dr. Eliza Shippen (1888 - 1981) and a floral wreath to be placed on her grave was presented to Soror Shief by Soror Harris. A moment of silent prayer for all deceased founders followed.

The four living founders are Osceola McCarthy Adams, Winona Argile Alexander, Naomi Sewell Richardson and Bertha Pitts Campbell. The others are: Marguerite Young Alexander, Ethel Cuff Black, Zephyr Chisom Carter, Edna Brown Coleman, Jessie McGuire Dent, Fredericka Chase Dodd, Myra Davis Hemmings, Olive Jones, Jimmie Bugg Middleton, Pauline Oberdorfer Minor, Vashti Turley Murphy, Mamie Reddy Rose, Eliza P. Shippen, Florence Letcher Toms, Ethel Carr Watson, Wertie Blackwell Weaver, Madree Penn White and Edith Motte Young.

Guest speakers were Soror Floretta D. McKenzie, superintendent, D.C. Public Schools and Ms. Marcia Gillespie, author — each in her own unique style of approach, addressed the Founders' Day theme. Soror Anita J. Gould introduced Soror McKenzie and Soror Peggy Bethel introduced Ms. Gillespie.

After the benediction, the audience joined in singing "Lift Every Voice and Sing."

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority was founded at Howard University on Jan. 13, 1913, by 22 undergraduate students. Over the past 69 years, the Sorority has grown to 678 chapters with a combined membership of over 100,000 women. Chapters are located throughout the United States and in the Republic of Haiti, Liberia and West Germany. Its main thrust is a Nation Five - Point Program: Educational Development, Community Services and International Understanding, Economic Development, Mental Health and Urban Development.

Washington Alumnae Chapter was started in 1921 by nine graduates of Howard Chapter. The chapter was officially recognized on February 3, of that year, and was known as Beta Beta. Later it became Beta Sigma and eventually was Washington, DC Alumnae Chapter.

Its officers are: Barbara M. Moseley, president; Olivia V. Aiken, first vice president; E. Jean Christian, second vice president; Michele C. Penick, recording secretary; Karen C. Benefield, corresponding secretary; Elva H. Glover, treasurer; Christine B. Clark, financial secretary; Anita F. Allen, parliamentarian; Linda J. Miley, sergeant - at - arms; Karen E. Clarke, historian; Deborah H. Brooks, journalist; Gwendolyn C. Brown, member - at - large; Marjorie A. Kinard, immediate past president.

Founders' Day chairs: L. Peggy Bethel, Anita J. Gould and E. Jean Christian. Co - Chairs who acted as hostesses: Catherine Adams, Maureen Ayton, Elaine Blackwell; Gwendolyn Boyd, Inez Bradley, Dwella Brashears, Ella Brewer, Bernice Bridgeport, Barbara Clark, Sharon Davis - Holmes, Freda Ewing, Liz Harris, Mittie Hopkins, Karen Jones, Vivian Lightfoot, Davetta Madison, Corina Moffett, Crystal Morris, Elizabeth Preston, Marian Shelton, Lillian Snowden, Delores Spaulding, Fredia Taylor, Mary Wade, Rose Williamson, Haltye Young.

of America," "Miss Virginia + USA State Finalist" and "Miss Black Model" — third runner up, Alonica is quite active, agree?

Nadine Matthews King, the first Mardi Gras Queen in 1958 was among those applauded. She was a student at D.C. Teachers' College at the time. The committee really did themselves and their guests proud with the recorded music of Count Basie, Duke Ellington and Wild Bill Davis, bands who had appeared at earlier Mardi Gras. It was a heavenly hour.

Henry D. Wesley was chair and Lester E. Tyler, vice chair of the 1982 Mardi Gras Committee. Delmar E. Nelson Sr., basileus.

Arriving early, we went to the Browns' room and were joined by the Campbells and the Paynes and nibbled on pastrami, cheese, smoked oysters and crackers. Recalling past years, events and funny experiences, I laughed until my face and stomach ached — it was a happy prelude to a fun evening.

And now, we look forward to the Mardi Gras next year.

BARNEY OFF TO 81 YEARS OF SERVICE

The Walter Reed Officers Club attracted nearly 200 friends and officers of Barney Neighborhood House observing the 80th Anniversary Banquet and launching its 1982 "Friends of Barney" Membership Enrollment. The event also cited Anne M. Houston, deputy director of Project Director Senior Citizen Satellite Centers for 25 years of service and Dr. W. Henry "Stud" Greene as honorary chairman of the drive.

There were many highlights of the evening as City Councilwoman Hilda H. M. Mason was for her interest and support of the settlement house. Freddie A. Brown Sr. was the genial master of ceremonies and banquet chairman.

Another of the added features of the evening was the presentation of a Mini Fashion Show — "featuring of the Senior Center Fashion show held Nov. 19th with Laurice Jones as narrator. Bustle, bonnet and parasol-were part of the dress modeled by lively Mildred "Skipper" Austin and bit by bit she took off pieces of apparel, still winding up with an attractive outfit.

Pauline Elmore, who put the show together, dazzled guests with her outfit and pastel mink coat, she tossed at me and I kept it until departure.

Also appearing in the show were Trenita Guy, Kitty White and Dorothy Barnett.

Julian Spirer, president, welcomed guests and spoke about the membership - enrollment. Harold B. Wheeler, campaign chairman, introduced the division leaders: Gladys Scott Roberts, Red Division; reddie A. Brown Sr., Gold Division; Anne M. Houston, Blue Division and Dr. Charles Holloway, first vice president, Special Division.

The goal of the campaign is $20,000 and 400 members whose financial support will help to supplement United Way support and meet matching requirements for federal and other grant funds.

Also appearing on the program were Rev. Dianne Wisemiller, pastor of National Baptist Memorial Church; Gladys Scott Roberts, member of the Board of Trustees; Harry S. Stothers, executive director; Hugh Smart Smith, who gave historical synopsis of Barney and Rev. Walter Cox, pastor of Brighwood Park United Methodist Church.

Over tossed salad prime rib of beef au jus, baked potato, green beans almondine, rolls, ice cream and anniversary cake, good fellowship and talks of a successful drive dominated the conversations.

Among those present were Rae Preston, treasurer; Spencer Scott, Leslie K. Smiths, Flora Alice Moore, president of Church Women Sondra Womack, Tommy Womack, John Mebane, Carole Clark, secretary; City Councilman Dave Clarke, Atty. Gerald Green, past president and his delightful mother from New York, Florence Lambert, Minnie Alston, James Taylor, Carroll Rmsey, Frances Johnson, Annie B. Grandison, Nettie M. Gallaway, Otha Williams, Pearle E. Mi or, Sarah L. Shamley, Velma L. Stewart, Lyndia V. Greene, Barbara L. Scott, Ida M. Watson, Juanita Dandridge, Naomi C. Pride Charles and Hilda Mason, Evelyn Strothers, Mrs. Lottie Turner and Miriam Holloway.

On Saturday the lovely apartment of Mildred Jollisant Brown of The Rittenhouse, was the scene, for a few friends to dine, chat and play pinochle. Mildred and Hellen Colly were the delightful hostesses and surprised Bertha Ovebey with a birthday cake and gifts. Bertha also won first prize . . . it was really her day.

Feasting on ham, swedish meatballs, sweet potatoes with marshmallows on top, spinach mold with tomato wedges, just part of a delectable array of food plus fruit cake, birthday cake, champagne and other beverages. Also playing were Ann Derricott, Ida Myers, Bertha McMurdock, Gussie Weatherall, Florence Lawes, Gladys Lee Thomas, Delores Barber, Eudora Gaskins and Mabel Dixon.

On my way to Mildred's I bumped into a dear friend, Rita Davenport, who was on her way to an Iota meeting. While in the building decided to call on Connie Thomas, and we sat and chatted and nibbled on cheese and fresh sticks. It was a nice visit which brought a fun day to a close.

MUSICAL SUNDAY

Good friends, good music, good eats what more can one ask for other than Heaven? On Sunday along with Bernard Walton, Bruce and Theressa Brown we drove, despite the fog, to the Hyattsville home of Mildred and Allan Holland. Time passed so quickly, we put in a day's work listening to some of Al's collectors' items — Basie, Kai Winding and J. J. Johnson, Louis Armstrong, Ella, Oscar just to name a few.

Touring the house (after more than three years of invitations) admired the afghans, macrame plant holders, and latchwork pictures Mildred had done and of course, admiring the paintings of Bruce and Bernard. After playing fun game, we dined magnificently on chicken, barbecued ribs, greens, baked macroni and cheese. This was a week when diet was not even thought of.

A charming host and hostess, we look forward to a report on their New York jaunt.

AND THEN

Monday evening, Marion H. Jackson picked me up and we were off to Japanese Steak House where she was being hostess to Ossie Ware Mitchell of Birmingham. Both are pastnational presidents of Iota Phi Lambda Sorority. Ossie was in town for a convention and we had a delightful time and it was her first Japanese eating experience.

Circle March 21st for Beta Chapter of Phi Delta Kappa Sorority's annual fashion show to be held at Indian Springs County Club. Use of the stores, whose fahions I enjoy and are so practical — Rose Williams, will be presented. Dorothy Worthy is chair and Margaret Nelson, basileus. So now that space has run out, I shall have to continue with lots of good things next week. Love NIKKI
