

point and the northernmost tip of Drum Point, until a resurvey of the Wye River, Wye Narrows and East Wye River shall be completed designating commercially productive oyster areas therein; provided, however, that after such survey nothing herein contained shall deny the Commission of Tidewater Fisheries the right to permit soft shell clam dredging south of the above mentioned line as said survey may disclose to be proper; or

(f) In the Queen Anne's County waters of East Wye River (also known as Back Wye) west of a line drawn from the southernmost tip of Wye Island (also known as Bordley Point) and the northernmost tip of Bruff's Island, until a resurvey of the Wye River, Wye Narrows and East Wye River shall be completed designating commercially productive oyster areas therein; provided, however, that after such survey nothing herein contained shall deny the Commission of Tidewater Fisheries the right to permit soft shell clam dredging west of the above mentioned line as said survey may disclose to be proper.

(g) In Kent Island Narrows and the Chester River entrance there-to between the shore line and a line drawn from the northernmost tip of Ferry Point to the northernmost tip of Long Point.

(2) It shall be lawful to take or catch, or attempt to take or catch soft shell clams as follows:

(a) In all the waters of Queen Anne's County not otherwise specifically prohibited;

(b) In the waters of the Chesapeake Bay bordering upon or adjoining Queen Anne's County, without restriction or limitation as to the area or submerged bottom where soft shell clams may be taken or caught by the use of mechanical or hydraulic dredge arising from any designation of oyster bars or natural oyster bars on the charts of the Commission of Tidewater Fisheries, anything to the contrary in this section or sub-title notwithstanding. ;PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT NOTHING HEREIN CONTAINED SHALL PERMIT THE TAKING OR CATCHING OF SOFT SHELL CLAMS WITHIN FIFTY (50) YARDS OF ANY COMMERCIALY PRODUCTIVE OYSTER AREA.

(c) In the Wye River and Wye Narrows north of a line drawn from the southernmost tip of Ferry Point and the northernmost tip of Drum Point, without restriction or limitation arising from a designation of oyster bars or natural oyster bars on the charts of the Commission of Tidewater Fisheries; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall permit the taking or catching of soft shell clams within fifty (50) yards of any commercially productive oyster area.

(d) In East Wye River (also known as Back Wye) east and north of a line drawn from the southernmost tip of Wye Island (known as Bordley Point) to the northernmost tip of Bruff's Island without restriction or limitation arising from a designation of oyster bars or natural oyster bars on the charts of the Commission of Tidewater Fisheries; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall permit the taking or catching of soft shell clams within fifty (50) yards of any commercially productive oyster area.