Deltas plan 'Love Month' activities

The Baltimore Alumnae Chapter of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc. is taking the theme of Brotherhood and Love very serious during this month of February.

The sorority has planned several events to accent the meaning of this month. The Love Month Committee, chaired by Mrs. Annette Hall and Mrs. Mabel Murray, will start the month with some special activities to be held during the monthly sorority meeting.

Members of the sorority will donate gifts of love to a children's home in the city.

On February 20, members of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, their loved ones and friends will journey to New York City for an evening of entertainment with one of their talented sisters, Ms. Lena Horne. The group is expected to be invited back stage after the show to meet and greet the Lady.

As a month long effort, the Love Month Committee is also sponsoring an essay contest for elementary and junior high school students. The theme is "Love is."

Young people are expected to write in 150 words or less about what Love means to them.

Prizes will be awarded in nine categories during a reception to be held at the Lower Park Heights Multi - Purpose Center on February 28, from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Finally, the Love Month Committee has published a calender with enlightening suggestions for making every day full of love.

Carolyn A. Briscoe displays thesis exhibition

By Pinnie L. Ross

Just recently in my mail box there was a beautiful tan and buff invitation from Thomas and Roberta Briscoe inviting us to their only daughter Carolyn A. Briscoe's Art Exhibit.

The exhibit held at The Office Gallery in Silver Spring, MD., was a partial fulfillment for her Master of Fine Arts Degree at Howard University.

More than two hundred guests viewed the twenty - one beautifully framed prints that were displayed in two rooms.

Among the twenty - one framed pieces of art were the following titles, "Bloom New People of the Earth," "The Rainbow Sisters," "After the Separation," "Spirit Entering the Body," "Germination of the New Humanity," "Dawn of Awareness," "The Waiting Unborn," "Facial Aphradisiac," and many others

She was dressed in a muted silk sarrah in colors of brown, pink, white and green.

She greeted her guests in a very graceful manner as she took time to chat with each one about her works.

The young artist had this to say, "Art has become a two blossom flower for me, an act of communication and a means of reaching the self. The self - function is the most basic element of the human soul. As an act of communication, it is a dialogue between the ideal self and the world.

She produced work representative of human ideals, work designed to aid people in seeing the ideal she said, "It represents what ought to be rather than what exists."

The genius at work feels that "art is a means to cleanse the mind and soul in order to perceive the self as a whole," she continued, "through this process the true self is revealed."

Miss Briscoe is an honors graduate of Fisk University in Nashville, TN. She received many awards while in high school and in college. And will receive her Master's Degree this spring from Howard University.

Guests enjoyed, while viewing the art work of Miss Briscoe, a variety of fruits and cheeses; also apple juice and wine.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Briscoe, we know you must be proud of your daughter, Carplyn.

This first Encyclopedic volume on black America fills a long-neglected need. No other work is as comprehensive ... as thoroughly researched ... as authoritatively presented. More than 80 contributors — all experts in their fields — have cooperated to make it an eminently readable and reliable reference source, representing the totality of the past and present life and culture of Afro-Americans.
(McGraw • Hill 921 Pages $49.50)

Under the direction of W. Augustus Low and Virgil A. Clift, the whole panorama of Afro-American history is surveyed. The Encyclopedia traces blacks from Africa through every period right up to the contemporary civil rights movement.
