NO. 9

(House Joint Resolution 5)

Joint Resolution creating a permanent committee to be appointed by the Governor for the regulation and study of migratory labor in Maryland.

WHEREAS, In past years, seasonal farm labor has become a major factor in Maryland, and the increase in farm production has necessitated the importation in increasing numbers of out-of-state workers from the southern states and from Puerto Rico, where the labor supply is better suited for this type of arduous stoop labor than is the local labor supply; and

WHEREAS, Many problems involving local and community action arise pertaining to this migratory labor force; and some of these problems include the recruitment of workers from distant points,
