Delores Summons
Student Ambassador

Eva Patterson
Top Sales Director

Bob Peterson, Vice President and Director of Admissions at the Art Institute of Fort Lauderdale, announced that Delores Summons, daughter of Mary Summons, Baltimore, Md., has been appointed a Student Ambassador for the School.

Ms. Summons will be visiting high schools in the Baltimore area and giving presentations about the Art Institute of Fort Lauderdale.

This will include information on careers in art and fashion and she will be showing student portfolios and samples of student work.

Delores is a graduate of Eastern Senior High and is currently a fifth quarter photography major at the Art Institute.

The Art Institute of Fort Lauderdale and its division, the Fashion Institute, located at 3000 East Las Olas Bouleverd, is a two-year commercial design school with majors in Advertising Design, Interior Design, Photography, Fashion Illustration and Fashion Merchandising.

The school, founded in 1968, has an enrollment of 1200 students from 43 states and 22 foreign countries.

A specialized Associate of Science degree is awarded each gradute.

Eva Patterson of Baltimore, Md. was honored for outstanding achievement at the Mary Kay Cosmetics, Inc., Emerald Seminar attended by nearly 8,000 this week.

Ms. Patterson was cited as one of the "Top Sales Directors" for 1981 in the independent field marketing organization of Mary Kay Cosmetics.

Ms. Patterson achieved recognition for outstanding leadership which resulted in her unit becoming one of the top in the Emerald division of the company.

She was awarded a 14K gold and diamond bar pin displaying Retail Unit achievement for 1981 and a walnut plaque.

The awards were presented at the firm's annual Seminar. This year's $2.5 million Seminar was the largest in the company's history.

"Seminar is the elaborate showcase we use as a vehicle to pay tribute to the outstanding performances of our sales force," said Mary Kay.

"Our company philosophy is to provide momemtum builders through contests and rewards. Motivation and incentive programs encourage each woman to reach her highest potential."

During the three-day Seminar, comprehensive classes including sales techniques, product knowledge, recruiting and motivation were conducted.

Columbia AKAs observe Founders' Day

The Iota Lambda Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., in celebration of its Founders Day presented Dr. Gwendolyn G. Grant as the featured luncheon speaker at the Columbia Inn on February 13, 1982.

Dr. Grant, who is a psychologist, educator, lecturer, writer, consultant and theologian, gave a dynamic and inspiring talk on "Getting Back to Our Roots."

She emphasized the family unit in the lives of Blacks today.

Further, she noted the necessity of understanding where we came from so that we could better prepare for where we are going. The theme that ran throughout her speech was that of the importance of the family functions of nurturing, protecting and providing for all family members.

She spoke of that most important role played by the women of the family, who from generation to generation have instilled in the young, the love and guidance and moral character which has sustained and strengthened yet another generation.

One of the highlights of Dr. Grant's speech was her formula for personal success which she calls The Seven Ups, and they are described as "Give up," "Pep Up," "Think up," "Talk up," "Tighten up," "Get up" and "Stand up."

In addition to Dr. Grant's speech, the Sorority honored three young ladies for their outstanding scholarship and leadership abilities. The hoffoees were Deidre Rodgers, a senior honor student at UMDC majoring in psychology; Kathleen M. House, a senior at Centennial High School in Columbia with a 3.9 grade point average and Kimberly I. Moran, a senior at Howard High School in Columbia, also with a 3.9 grade point average.

The Founders' Day Committee included: Wylene S. Burch, Chairperson, Fay Acker, Rosalynne Atterbeary, Janice Harper, Vera H. Hayes, Jacqueline Hilson, Jaqueline Jackson, Marie E. Johson, also Mignonette Keller, Emily Jo Knox, Jean Lewis, Betty Mello, Barbara Smith, Virginia Watkins, Rayna Woodford, and Annette Taylor.

Iota Lambda Omega Chorale members, who performed during the affair are Sarah Clark, Jaqueline Jackson, Frenzela Credle, E. Marie Johnson, Rayna Woodford, Janet Griffin and Evelyn Miller.

YOUTHFUL HONOREES who were presented certificates for outstanding achievement in the community and in their schools were: (L to R): Deidre Rogers, Kimberly I. Moran and Kathleen M. House.
