Kappa's 'Night in Las Vegas'—a smashing success

By Pattie Hodges,
AFRO Women's Editor

Those effervescent brothers of Kappa Alpha Psi (Baltimore Alumni Chapter) hosted their looked - forward - to 'Night in Las Vegas' Friday, March 5 from 10 p.m. until 2 a.m.

Martin's West was teeming folks, more than 1200 Kappa brothers, and their wives, sweethearts and guests, who came to party - hearty.

There were many attractions, from the moment you were escorted to your table by the lovely hostesess, all decked out in the Kappa's colorful red and white.

Of course, there was foot - tapping music by The Commissioners Band of Washington, DC, and the dance floor saw lots of action throughout the evening.

For those who wanted to try their hand at games of chance there were game wheels spinning, of many types and shouts of victory and merriment could be heard from the winners. Even the losers kept going back for the fun of it all. Manning the game tables were the hospitable brothers of the chapter.

And ooh - ooh - that soul food - collard greens, potato salad, candied sweets, barbecued spare ribs, pig's feet, fried chicken, roast beef and even cornbread, with lots of condiments.

The bard placed strategically throughout the four - chandelieredhall, were kept busy as the party people kept refilling their glasses with all kinds of sippables.

When not dining, sipping, dancing or playing games of chance, everyone was busy table - hopping, greeting old friends, meeting new ones and rapping animatedly.

Much excitement was generated as brothers circulated, minding all that the raffle prize time was drawing near.

Winner of the biggie - the 1982 Chevrolet Chevette, was Vivian Holmes, who was thrilled by it all.

Second prize of $1,000 was garnered by a surprised and elated Lloyd Mitchner, of Urban Services, whose table guests cheered when his name was called.

Third prize of $800 or a television set was won by Ben Baylor. All winners were all smiles, and Mitch kept saying when he was teased; "Hey, what can I say?" with a wide grin.

It was a fun - fun evening with folks all decked out in their glitter and finery — very reminiscent of the real Las Vegas. Co - chairs for the 'Night in Las Vegas were James Marrow and David Bowie Chair for the Raffle Committee was Alfred Smith; Co - chair was William Dennis.

Chapter officers are Donald Rigby, polemarch; Robert Draine, vice polemarch; Clarence Harris, Keeper of records; William Day, keeper of Exchequer; William Dennis, corresponding secretary; Robert Tarter, assistant keeper of Exchequer; Alonzo Rogers, strategus; Archie Shaw, Lt. strategus; Richard Robinson, reporter.

On the Board of Directors are William "Box" Harris, Joseph Bush and Howard L. Tutman Jr.

The Neverdons are honored at 50th anniversary fete

By Pattie Hodges,
AFRO Women's Editor

Mr. and Mrs. James Neverdon (Hattie) of Charm City were hosed on their 50th wedding anniversary with a celebration at 6115 Baywood Ave. by their children — Thomas Neverdon, Joan Neverdon Adeboye, Cynthia Neverdon Morton, Ronald Neverdon, Gail Neverdon Edmonds, (at whose home the fete was held) Michael Neverdon Merritt, Gary, Andre and Robert Neverdon.

The couple and their guests enjoyed a delicious buffet dinner, replete with dessert and beverages.

There was a lovely white two - tiered cake, trimmed in gold with the traditional bride and groom on top inscribed "Happy 50th Anniversary James and Hattie." There were also several other cakes available. The couple received many cards, flowers and beautiful gifts of gold.

Four generations were represented at the celebration, including (in addition to the children) 21 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Thomas, eldest of the Neverdon brothers, gave a lovely champagne toast to his mother and father.

The honorees were truly thrilled. James, who is a retiree of Bethlehem Steel, with more than 35-years of service plays checkers with his Checker Club. He is 82 years young and still walks two to three miles a day.

His wife, who has always been a housewife, still enjoys reading, shopping and helping with her grandchildren.

Others in attendance at the Neverdon's fete were Joseph Edmonds, John Merritt, Niran Adeboye, Pamela Neverdon; Oma Brooks, Bea and Floyd Smith, Thomas Neverdon, Elna Neverdon, Annette and Kenneth Spann, Leroy Neverson;

Also Mrs. Lucretia Holmes, Ms. Vickie Browne, Mrs. Marion Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Durham, Mrs. Dorothy Hunter, Mrs. Delores Wright, Mrs. Frances Neverdon, Quinn Fields, Miss Tammy Wright, Butcb Cornish, Mrs. Pauline Turner, Mrs. Margaret Farmer and Mr. and Mrs Weldon Christopher.

Unit Celebration

Members of the Inspiration Unit of Mary Kay Cosmetics hosted a celebration at the Carriage Hill Clubhouse at Carriage Hill Village in Randallstown, Saturday, March 6 in honor of the Unit's yearly achievements — a quarter of a million dollars in sales for 1981 and unit leader Eva Patterson's winning of another pink cadillac, to be presented to her in June.

Katherine Ellerbe was presented a "Miss Go - Give Award" for doing kind and helping things for others in the unit and for being a sharing person. She received a beautiful plaque. Not bad for one who has only been in the company a year this past February.

Director Clustie Ford attended along with her unit members. Also present was Bernita Conaway, who is a future director and will be going to Dallas, Tex. for director training soon.
