Frontiers Club meets

The Baltimore Frontiers Club held their monthly meeting at Maceo's Lounge recently.

The highlight of the evening was the special ceremonies honoring 15 year old Ms. Monica Simpson of 3901 Roksby Road in Edmondson Village.

Ms. Simpson represented her church, Progressive First Baptist, in an essay contest entitled, "The Black National Anthem and What It Means To Me." Participation was extended to about a dozen local churches and Monica reigned supreme.

She was presented a $50.00 cash prize after reading her essay.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. B.A. Dawkins, pastor, and several members of Progressive First Baptist Church were in attendance, inclusive of her parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles.

Johnnie E. Jowers, immediate past President of the Baltimore Frontiers club presided over these proceedings. This was one of several projects of this service organization which strives to enhance the quality of life of people with special emphasis on youth.

Ms. Simpson's essay will be entered in Regional competition during April. If she is successful on that occasion, she will receive an additional prize of $100.00 and a chance at another $200.00 purse during the National competition in Philadelphia at the Frontiers National Convention in July.

Franklin Parker, treasurer of the local club, presented a Certificate of Appreciation to Johnnie Jowers from the Governer's Office For Children & Youth.

It carried the Governor's signature and was presented in recognition of Mr. Jowers' valuable contribution to the Governor's Conference on Children & Youth.

Alice Lium, Baltimore City Conference Coordinator, stated in a letter enclosed with the citation: "It is a tribute to you and your dedication that we were able to provide a program of such high quality. You demonstrated that there are people who care. Thank you for being a friend to children and youth."

Pinkney Howell serves as president of the Baltimore Club, which anticipates many positive achievements under his leadership.

Inner Harbor Flotilla adds six new members

Six new members joined the ranks of USCG Auxiliary Flotilla 19 at its March meeting which was held at D'Joint's Restaurant.

Sworn in by Flotilla Commander Lawrence Hunt were: Frederick Bellfield, Marjorie Bellfield, Henry Burris, Thomas Stephens, E. Stanley Williams, and Bernard Wyche.

Witnessing this ceremony were United States Coast Guard Ensign Richard McIntyre who serves as DIRAUX Detached; Raymond Baginski, Captain of Division One, United States Coast Guard Auxiliary; and members of Flotilla 19.

Each of these new basically qualified members brings special training and expertise to the flotilla. Frederick Bellfield is a retired Computer Production Specialist who has been in boating for 32 years. Marjorie Bellfield is a retired Social Security Administration supervisor who has been in boating for fifteen years.

Henry Burris is a Baltimore City Fire Department Lieutenant in charge of paramedics. Besides being a qualified paramedic, he is also a Medical Specialist in the U.S. Air Force National Guard and a member of the University of Maryland Hospital Shock Trauma Team. Thomas Stephens is a Laboratory Director at University of Maryland Hospital whose specialty is clinical pathology.

E. Stanley Williams holds an Amateur Radio License. He operates a General Class fixed radio station as well as a mobile one. Auxiliarist Williams is also a Certified Civil Defense Radio Officer.

Bernard Wyche, besides being an experienced boater, also holds a private pilot's license and is a former member of the Civil Air Patrol. He is a member of the Instrumental Institute of Electronic Engineers and is a certified electronic technician.

He holds a First Class Commercial Radio - Telephone license and an Advanced Class amateur Radio License. auxiliarist Wyche operates a complete 2000 unit radio station and an amateur radio station.

These special skills added to the comprehensive basic qualification training each new member has completed will enable Flotilla 19 to effectively carry out its mission: the promotion of recreational boating safety through public education, courtesy motorboat examinations, and assistance to boaters on the waters (operations).

Flotilla 19 members present at this meeting were: FC Lawrence Hunt, FSO - SR Mary Bowman, FSO - MT Edward Hunt, FSO - VE Andrew Jackson, FSO - GR Dorothy James, FSO - PA Geraldine Blackwell, FSO - FN John Blackwell, FSO - CC Thomas Bowman, and FSO - MA John Lockett. Other members present were William Brown, Sr., and Harry Hawkins.

Sad Farewell

The members of USCG Auxiliary Flotilla 19 were deeply saddened by the sudden passing of a member, Harold A. Sydnor, on Saturday, March 20, 1982.

Mr. Sydnor was a charter member of Flotilla 19 and was elected its first Vice Commander. An enthusiastic auxiliarist, he probably took more patrols than any other member of the flotilla. Another cornerstone that he enjoyed was Fellowship. Sydnor was chairman of the Fellowship Committee last year. He had been appointed Operations Officer for 1982.

An avid boater, Mr. Sydnor was also a charter member of the Dolphin Cruising Club and associated with the Federation of Yacht Clubs, Inc. Other organizations in which he held membership were The Clifton T. Perkins Hospital Center Bowling League, the Hilltop Hunt Club of Eastern Shore, Maryland, and the Loch Raven Skeet and Trap Club, Inc.

Flotilla 19 is grateful to Captain Ray Baginski and members of Division One for their expressions of sympathy.

Monumental City Friends, a recently organized Baltimore women's club, is about the business of serving others.

At its first fund-raising event on Saturday at the Forum, club president, Florence Bailey noted "We are a group of spirited women of different ages and occupations, with a common interest in the educational, cultural and civic needs of the Baltimore community who have pooled their energies and resources to contribute to multiple charities."

Among them have been the House of Ruth for battered women and the Green Acres Nursing Home.

In the 30 months the club has been in existence, it has adopted a single parent family with 3 children, helped the mother secure employment, and provided clothing and special gifts on holidays.

Monumental City Friends have also served as mentors for seven gifted and talented junior high school students, enabling them to attend civic and cultural events on a monthly basis.

In addition, the club has made contributions to recognized charities like the AFRO's Mrs. Santa, and supported the Arena Players and Constant Care Community Health Center.

Their first fund-raiser at the Forum on April 3, was a card party luncheon which attracted over 200 men and women.

Guests vied for dozens of door prizes and winners at bridge and bingo tables received special awards. A half and half drawing of $77 was won by Mrs. Delores Gilliam.

Chairing the benefit were Virginia Vanis and Margaret Land.

In addition to the president, Mrs. Bailey, other officers are Blanche Beckham, vice president; Mattie Mumby, Bernice McDaniels and Barbara Owings, secretaries; Dorothy Clinton, treasurer.

Other members are Lorraine Brown, Jeanne Davis, Odessa Dyson, Jesola Jones, Evelyn Haysbert, Frankie Martin, Elise Jude Mason, Frances Mitchell, Christine Moore, Bettye Moss, Marion Patterson, Mary Robinson, Lucille Venture, Bea Wright and Mable Young.
