37th Wedding anniv.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cherry (Ealeen) were honored with a celebration on their 37th wedding anniversary Friday, April 9.

The surprise fete was hosted by the couple's children Sonya and Leon Cherry at Martin's West, where the couple were lured to the honeymoon suite by the hosts until the affair began at 9 p.m.

More than 120 guests, neighbors, friends and family members attended the black-tie affair, for which Mrs. Cherry was dressed in an elegant aqua gown with matching accessories and her spouse handsome in a cherry black tux.

Special highlights was a program which included songs, dance and special presentations to the honorees, and which was concluded by a three-act skit which portrayed the courtship, and marriage of the couple and the night before the celebration — all very entertaining, touching and interesting.

Decorations were in the color scheme of red and white and there was a three - tiered white wedding cake, trimmed in red.

Disco music was provided by John Marble.

The couple received a variety of gifts ranging from crystal to a weekend in Atlantic City.

Their reaction was one of happy shock. They were in their words "Flabbergasted" and both cried tears of joy.

Family members attending came from New York, Washington, D.C., Virginia, and North Carolina, as well as Baltimore.

Sweet Sixteen party

Saturday, April 10 an elegant Sweet Sixteen Birthday dinner party was held in honor of Denise D. Chambles, daughter of Mrs. Deloris Chambles, at Meushaw's Motor Inn from 6:30 p.m. until 1 a.m.

A lavish dinner was served at 7 p.m., followed by family members and friends singing "Happy Birthday" to the honoree.

Preceding the singing the guest returned to the dance floor where they performed the latest steps in disco dancing. Among those celebrating with Denise were Adolphus Millings, Talmira Hill, Felicia Hill, George Allen, Desene Snowden, Lynn Cooke, Terry Brown, Dawn Robins, Daphne Robins, Chris Phillips, George Phillips;

Also Harvey Bell, William Foster, Chris Heidelberg, Jackie Owens and Yolande Parker.

Family members present were Michelle Conoway, John Holmes and Cheryl Johnson, cousins; Mrs. Doris Holmes, Mrs. Jackie Conaway and Mrs. Fleasie Johnson.

Special members of the family attending included David Washington, Mrs. Doris Cooks, Clarence Brown and Dr. John Brown.

Denise is a sophomore at Archbishop Keough High School.

J & J Spring Happening

The Baltimore Chapter of Jack and Jill of America, Inc. held its 'Spring Happening' recently in a beautifully decorated setting of The Forum, Primrose Ave.

Greetings were given by Shirley Hill, president of the Baltimore Chapter, who expressed sincere gratitude to members, former members and guests for their continuous support to the chapter. Funds raised from the affair will be used for the chapter's Service Project.

Music was furnished by the Dennis Fisher Band and nearly 300 members and guests enjoyed an evening of sumptuous food, dancing and browsing through the art display area.

The committee members were Marion Patterson, chairlady; Jacqueline Chambers, Faye Burnett, Mabel Hubbard, Arnetta Hargroves, Sarah Gray, Ruth Hunt, Frances Pennington, Flossie Johnson, Delores Sykes, Geraldine Desbordes and Gladys Bragg.
