VSU choir slates spring concerts

The Virginia State University Concert Choir has a full schedule of events slated during the latter part of April through the beginning of May.

On Monday, April 19, the VSU Concert Choir will join several university choirs across the state to form the "Intercollegiate Choir." They will perform Dr. Undine S. Moore's Cantata, "Scenes From the Life of a Martyr," with the accompaniment of the Richmond Symphony Orchestra conducted by Jacques Houtmann. Dr. Moore, now retired, served as assistant music professor at VSU.

On April 23-24, the VSU Concert Choir will participate in the National Collegiate Choral Festival which will be held at Loyola University in New Orleans. For the second time in five years, the VSU choir will present its individual program featuring the music of Dr. Undine S. Moore, on April 24, the choir will join the Louisiana State University and Mississippi State Choirs' performance there works.
