

(13) The selling or offering for sale of shares, certificates or interests in the business of any funeral director or embalmer or in any corporation owning or conducting an undertaking or embalming establishment under the promise of or purporting to give to the purchasers thereof a right to the services of such funeral director, embalmer or corporation at a charge or cost less than that offered or given to the public at large.

(d) Before proceeding to suspend or revoke any such license, the person against whom complaint is made shall be furnished with a copy of the complaint and the charges made against him, and shall be given an opportunity for a hearing before the Board in person, or by attorney, and at such hearing testimony may be offered for and against the accused. The action of the Board shall be reduced to writing, stating also the reasons for said action, and a copy thereof shall be delivered or mailed to the person against whom complaint is made.

(e) Before the Board proceeds with the suspension or revocation of any license, it shall give due notice to the person against whom complaint is made and furnish him with a copy of the complaint and the charge made against him. He shall be given an opportunity for a hearing before the Board in person or by attorney. At such hearing testimony may be offered for or against the accused. The findings of the Board shall be stated in writing including also the reasons for its action and a copy of the Board's findings shall be delivered or mailed to the person against whom the complaint was made.

355. Appeals from suspension or revocation.

Any person whose license has been suspended or revoked under the provisions of this subtitle may appeal from the decision or the order of the Board to the Circuit Court of the County in which he resides or to the Baltimore City Court if he resides in Baltimore City. The Court shall determine whether the Board has exceeded the powers granted to it by this subtitle and whether the Board has misconstrued the law and facts applicable in the matter decided. The appeal shall be taken within twenty days from the date of the decision or order complained of by filing a notice of appeal in the office of the clerk of the court to which the appeal is taken. The clerk of the court thereupon shall forward a copy of the appeal to the Board directing the Board to produce certified records and testimony or copies thereof relating to the order or decision from which the appeal is taken. The proceeding in every such appeal shall be informal and summary before the Court without a jury. During the appeal full opportunity shall be given to both parties to be heard. If the Court determines that the Board has acted within its powers and has correctly construed the law and the facts, the decision of the Board shall be confirmed. Otherwise, it shall be reversed or modified and the Court shall enter such order as to it may seem proper. The noting of an appeal operates as a stay of the decision or order of the Board.

356. Reciprocity.

The Board may grant a license under this subtitle to individual persons from other states who are licensed funeral directors and embalmers therein, under such terms and conditions as the Board
