Trinity Lodge No. 72 hosts fundraiser at Prince Hall Temple

Saturday, evening, Dec. 11 Trinity Lodge No. 75 hosted a dance to raise funds for expenses to the Building Fund for the Grand Lodge and funds to support the Grand Lodge in giving dinners to the elderly on New Year's Day.

The affair hosted at the Prince Hall Temple from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. attracted a goodly number of guests to dance, partake of open bar and munchies, in addition to the variety of delectables brought by members for their guests.

Trinity Lodge started out as a social club in 1919, when some brothers in Trinity Baptist Church, decided to form a social club for the sole purpose of becoming better acquainted and better brothers to mankind.

The first meetings were no more than regular prayer meetings or bible classes, extending the band of fellowship to those who needed or requested it. The evenings always ended by serving cakes, cookies and coffee.

The close relationship inspired the members of the club to seek admittance in the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of the state of Maryland. They requested to retain their name and be accepted as a group July 2, 1920.

Little more than a year later, their petition was granted by Most Worshipful Grand Master Joseph Evans.

The Charter members thought of the lodge as a place to build better men, by helping the sick, needy and by being active in civic and religious organizations.

They also felt that members of the Trinity Lodge were "Marked Men" and that they were recipients of the highest wisdom of the ages.

They are still carrying out the traditions of their founders, for they believe in the strength of the individual rather than that of numbers.

Thus they have never sought a large membership. They started with 17 brothers and after more than 61 years, only have 35.

The group feels that it has a lot to live up to. That is why they give affairs from time to time to help raise monies for different charitable causes.

Oldest members include Newell Quinton, Worthy Master; George Marrow, Reginald Thomas, Senior Warden; Chester Drake, Sherman Dunaway, Junior Warden; James Mathews, James Hatcher, treasurer; Leroy Hilliard, Donald Smith, Jack Rouse, Randy Elliott, Hunter Norris, secretary: Clarence Williams, Grant Owings, Elias Wade, Chester Drake and Hunter Norris.
