Snack Attack opens

It's new, it's different and is open seven days a week. The prices are reasonable, the atmosphere is warm and friendly and there is a variety of food.

Robert L. Clav. a 36-year-old self employed contractor and businessman, is the owner of Snack Attack, located in Shake and Bake Family Fun Center, 1601 Pennsylvania Ave.

"Quality food, quality service and reasonable prices is my motto," said Clay. Snack Attack opened Dec. 11 - and consist of a variety of food sold at six different shops.

Clay calls his new business "unique and different." He said he was also looking at the need for an eating establishment in the area.

This week Clay is giving away 500 pairs of shoes to any customer who spends $5. He plans to give the last 250 pair of shoes away today (Friday).

One of the most popular items on the menu is the Island style lake trout fish. The other eating shops are Mel's Pizza, Ice Cream Supreme, Geri's Delly, Eva's Bakery consisting of all homemade baked goods and Tennessee's Fried Chicken.

Snack Attack is open seven days a week, serves breakfast and open until 4 a.m. on Friday and Saturday. Thursday night is known as Robert Clay's night. Adults are invited to roller skate at the Shake and Bake center.

MORNING STAR LODGE members of the Prince Hall Masons with some of the dozens of food baskets they presented this year are W. M. Isiah Chestnut Sr., Irvin Council, Grover Williams and William Taylor.
