

ming from the parts whether they intended to goe, told them that all the Natives were in preparation of defence by reason of a rumor some had raised amongst them, that 6. shippes were to come with many people, who would drive all the inhabitants out of the Countrey.

On the 3. of March, they left Point-Comfort, & 2. dayes after, they came to Patomneck river, which is about 24. leagues distant, there they began to give names to places; and called the Southerne point of that River, Saint Gregories; and the Northerne point, Saint Michaels.

Patomneck, is a great River of the Province of Maryland: on which they intended to settle the first Colony.

They sayled up the River, till they came to Heron Island, which is about 14. leagues, and there came to an Anchor under an Island neere unto it, which they called S. Clements. Where they set up a Crosse, and tooke possession of this Countrey for our Saviour, and for our Soveraigne Lord the King of England.

So called from the abundance of that Fowle there.

Heere the Governor thought fit for the ship to stay, vntill hee had discovered more of the Countrey: and so hee tooke two Pinnaces, and went up the River some 4. leagues, and landed on the South side, where he found the Indians fled for feare, from thence hee sayled some 9. leagues higher to Patomneck Towne where the Werowance being a child, Archihau his vnckle (who governed him and his Countrey for him) gave all the company good wellcome, and one of the company having entered into a little dis-

The Dove, and one byred in Virginia.

So they call their Princes.
