YMCA Board holds annual meeting

YMCA AWARDS FORMER MEMBER, Board of Managers, Druid Hill Branch (L) Nat Jackson, Associate Executive Director, Larry V. Alvey, President, Y.M.C.A. of Greater Baltimore, John C. Mayden, former Board of Managers and John Hargrave, Director Board of Managers, Druid Hill.

The Druid Hill Branch of the YMCA held its annual meeting at the Glass Pavilion at the John Hopkins University.

The guest speaker Attorney Charles P. Howard, Jr. gave a brief history of the "Y's" impact on the lives of young men who later moved forward to significant achievements.

Attorney Howard spoke glowingly of the selfless contributions made by such men as Gerald Allen, William Kindall, Louis Harmon, Maurice Adams, Dr. Bernard Harris, Sr., Hiram Butler, Rev. Ellison (from the 20-50's) and others.

He cited Henry Parks, Willie Adams, Parren Mitchell, Troy Brailey, John Henderson, Leroy Dyett as men in the 60's and 70's who continued the effort to make the "Y" program. Nat Jackson Jr., the present Associate Director presented a report which outlined the present program. He reported that 300 children learned to swim during the summer program.

John Hargrove the newly elected Chairperson of the Board of Managers installed the following new Board Members: Linda Barclay, John Oliver, Jr., Marcellus Moore, Marion McGaskey, Edward Seidler, Herbert Singleton, Dreck Wilson, Bronwyn Mayden, Theodore Sparrow, Kitty Broady, C. Marsha Grayson, Jacqueline Fulton, M.D., Michael Gambrill, Martena Green, Tommie Jackson.

Former Board Members who received certificates of service included John Mayden and Camay Murphy.

SECOND MASQUERADE BALL HELD

The Columbia Chapter of Dejouir held its Annual Fundraiser just recently at the Officer's Club at Fort Meade, MD. It was another winner for the diligent working ladies.

The facility was packed to capacity in spite of the inclement weather.

Committee members arrived early at the Club in preparation for table favors and to see that everything was perfect for their guests.

Guests began to arrive at 10 p.m., some in costumes that were unbelievable, unreal. There were other costumes that were high fashion, humorous in quality and specially designed ones.

They came in all styles, not knowing that there would be prizes given under the various categories, high fashion humor and style, originality, the most scary.

All Dejouir members were dressed in Flapper dresses. Their husbands were attired in zoot suits in pin stripes with big hats, black shoes with the old fashion spats.

By this time it was time for the Reach Band from Baltimore to start the music, and they did just that. The Reach Band provided music for all ages.

Guests danced until 2:30 a.m. Prior to departing for their respected homes, they helped themselves to a delicious buffet consisting of a variety of sandwiches, devilled eggs, mardarin drumettes, Swedish meatballs, chilled fresh vegetable trays, cheese trays, and many other goodies one would like.

Guests were welcomed by President Maurine McKinley after which she introduced the club members.

The highlight came at the affair when the parade began for the judges to select the winners from the hilarious and beautiful costumes and judging the paraders were Marti Franklin and Elliott Wallace from Baltimore, MD and Jessie Kensler, Columbia, MD.

There was a 50-50 raffle sold by the members' husbands, and they also took turns working at the door.

Nancy Kensler was the very fine chairperson for the Masquerade Ball. Her committee included Hazel Rayford, Ruthie Young, Hazel Ervin, Pinnie Ross, Evelyn McClurkin, Helen Fitzpatrick, Delores Burgess, Eloise Lee and Lorraine Dorsey who was ill, but worked diligently from her bedside. We pray that Lorraine will soon recover.

Guests came from as far as New York to witness this annual dance.

The purpose of the Dejouir Club is to promote a social atmosphere among women of like ideals, to encourage the virtues of true womenhood here and elsewhere in the nation and to take an active part in civil, fraternal and charitable activities, state and nation.

A Time for Thanksgiving

It's around this time of year when signs of Thanksgiving really begin to show. The custom is to give what you can to those in need.

Churches and clubs are in preparation for giving baskets. Gift certificates are being given out to needy people instead of food at St. John Baptist Church. The gift certificates were decided upon because there are many people who are on diets and gift certificates will enable the users to select the kinds of food they wish to buy. Good idea, think about it another year.

"The Lord is my Shepherd. I shall not want." Therefore Thanksgiving is a part of our lifestyle. The Old Testament records that the children of God held Thanksgiving Festivals. (Ex. 23:16; 34:22. Lev. 23:15-22, 33-44. Deut. 16:9-15).

We should realize that the world and all that is in it belongs to God and we move and have our being because of God. We must pause daily and on "Thanksgiving Day" to proclaim as David did, "O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good."

Guardsmen from 15 chapters here for 50th anniversary

Guardsmen of affiliated chapters along the Eastern Seaboard and as far west as Detroit will attend the fiftieth anniversary celebration at the Hyatt Regency during this Thanksgiving weekend, November 25-27.

A "Harborlights" theme will attract brothers and their ladies from 15 chapters in Atlanta, Brooklyn, Detroit, Florida, Manhattan, New Jersey, Norfolk, North Carolina, Philadelphia, Richmond, Savannah, and Washington, D.C. chapters.

Co. William A. "Box" Harris, president, and his weekend committee, chaired by Dr. John E. Maupin Jr., have arranged a program typical of Baltimore hospitality.

In addition to a reception on the afternoon of the opening day, a formal dance will be held on Friday, while Saturday will feature a luncheon fashion show and an informal dance later that evening.

Time will be set aside for visitations to the various attractions at Harbor Place. A farewell breakfast on Sunday will conclude the activities.

At the formal dance on Friday, the five living active charter members will be honored; they are John M. Wood, Robert P. Diggs, Clifton S. Murray, Edward A. Williams, and Richard H. Cummings.

A fashion show with female models from the Pauline Brooks Boutique and male models from Bernard Hill Ltd. will be the Saturday afternoon entertainment piece.

In addition to charter members, President Harris and committee chair, Dr. Maupin, named above, other members of the Baltimore host chapter are: Charles G. Tildon Jr., vice president; Charles E. Brown, secretary; Dr. Guy M. Bragg Jr., treasurer; Howard G. Collins Jr., financial secretary;

Also, Benjamin L. Brown, Dr. Sidney O. Burnett Jr., Walter T. Edmonds, Dr. William M. Garner, Dr. Raymond L. Gray, Dr. William M. Hall, Harold J. Jennifer Jr., David T. Mason, Dr. Marcus W. Moore Sr., Stephen P. Moore 2nd;

And, Joel W. Newton, Norman E. Parker Jr., Donald E. Patterson, George L. Russell Jr., Kenneth L. Thompson and Warren W. Weaver.

IN LEADERSHIP, FRIENDSHIP AND SERVICE

The Baltimore Area Alumni Association of Alpha Phi Omega represents one of the area's finest fraternal groups.

Alpha Phi Omega's history deals with men - a very special group of men - who hold certain beliefs in common and who share a common heritage.

Their Heritage is in Pennsylvania. Less than a decade after the close of the First World War. It was at Lafayette College, Easton, PA., under the auspices of Frank Reed Horton, that fourteen men founded Alpha Phi Omega. Hence, this had the beginning of the formation of the first national organization of the Fraternity.

Here was the realization, come true, of one man's dream for an organization through which men might better the conditions of other men, as well as of themselves.

The history of Alpha Phi Omega, then, is a story of Leadership, Friendship and Service. Since the founding at Lafayette College in 1925, more than 130,000 men have participated in this nationwide Brotherhood.

Since its inception, well over twelve years ago, the Baltimore Area Alumni Association has increased its membership to nearly 35. In keeping with the tradition of Alpha Phi Omega, the Association has continued to "provide service to humanity."

With the support of others they pledge to move forward.

Service Accomplishments of Alpha Phi Omega include Scholarship Awards by which were received by the following: Dellphine Jackson of Southwestern Senior High School - $500.00, Portia Owens of Southwestern Senior High School - $500, Jean M. Rogers of Northwestern Senior High School - $400.00, Cassandra Sutton of Walbrook Senior High School - $400.00, Michael Martin of Dunbar Senior High School - $400.00, Venessa Jordan of Southwestern Senior High School - $300.00

A.P.O. also made a $100.00 donation to the Annie Mae Hunter Home For The Blind, and Brothers were involved in the annual spring cleaning project at the facility.

May 16, 1983 A.P.C. sponsored a fundraiser, raising $500.00, for the benefit of The Boys Scouts of America. The affair was held at The Five Mile House, Reisterstown Rd.

Contributions and-or assistance by A.P.O. were rendered to the following during this fiscal year: Berean Baptist Church, Long Reach Church of God, The Morgan State University Choir, Salvation Army Boys Club - ($100.00), Youths at Spring Grove State Hospital - ($100.00), and Harlem Park Junior High School Social Studies Fair - ($200.00).

The Alumni Association of Alpha Phi Omega Fraternity wishes to acknowledge the following new officers for fiscal year 1983-1984: Brother Henry Holman, president; Brother Wilbur Harrell, first vice president; Brother Leon Jones, second vice president; Brother Lester McCrea, treasurer; Brother Nelson Motley, corresponding secretary; Brother Wayne Brown, recording secretary; Brother Henry Pope, historian; and Brother James

BNDW PROGRAM

Are you a woman who has spent years as a full-time homemaker?

Do you now have to support yourself and your family because

. . . You are widowed, divorced, or separated,

Hints For Homemakers/Inez Kaiser

Ring around the collar threatens social life

DEAR INEZ: I have been reading your column with interest for years. Now I need your personal advice. I can't seem to get steady dates any more. One of my best friends told me there were rings around the collars of my blouses—and that might be the trouble. What can I use to remove those unsightly stains and regain my social action?—LADY WITH THE RINGS

DEAR LADY WITH THE RINGS: Don't think you are the only woman who has rings around her collars. Everyone has them! The natural oils from our skin cause the rings.

So relax, all you have to do is use WISK to get rid of those nasty rings. WISK, the No. 1 liquid laundry detergent, works better than sprays or powders on ring around the collar.

WISK does a fine job in removing all kinds of other difficult spots and stains. In fact, this liquid detergent does a great job in cleaning the whole family wash—not just spots and stains.

It's interesting that for years most homemakers only thought of using WISK to clean the rings from their husbands' shirt collars. But times have changed. Today, women are conscious of their own shirt and blouse collars, too—and rightly so.

The cleaning technique is exactly the same for ring around the collar as for common household stains such as coffee, catsup or cocoa:

Just moisten the collar and pour some WISK directly on the soiled area, rub lightly and place the shirt in the washer with the rest of your laundry.

In fact, your collars will be so clean your date may ask you the secret of how you do it. So put your confidence in WISK. Once you try it, you'll see why it is called "the liquid miracle."

HOW TO GET SOFTER, SMOOTHER SKIN

MORE AND MORE WOMEN these days are paying greater attention to the appearance and feel of their skin. They want to put their best face forward because soft, smooth skin and an attractive complexion are priceless assets in any woman's appearance.

The trouble is that many women try using all types of soaps and rarely get the results they want, primarily because soap dries their skin.

Fortunately, more women are now discovering that DOVE is not a soap. It actually is a moisturizing cream plus mild cleansing agents that leave your skin feeling soft and smooth.

The story of DOVE's mildness has been supported by the findings of Dr. Albert M. Kligman who recently conducted a study to assess the irritancy of 18 well-known toilet bars and their effects on skin.

The study singled out DOVE as the only bar tested that could truly be called "mild," thereby placing DOVE in a class by itself.

That's what I've been saying for years: there's nothing like DOVE!

ADD IMPERIAL TASTE TO YOUR FOODS

ONE OF MY VERY favorite products in the holiday season is IMPERIAL margarine.

First of all, I love IMPERIAL's rich, buttery taste which finds its way into so many great-tasting foods—as a table spread and as a flavorful ingredient in all sorts of cooking and baking.

Inflation may be slowing down a bit, but it's still good to be able to keep your costs down and also retain good taste and quality with a fine product like IMPERIAL.

IMPERIAL comes in a wide variety of forms to satisfy virtually any taste—stick and soft forms, light spreads, whipped and diet. But all have one great thing going for them—the margarine tastes so much like butter that many people can't tell them apart.

And the new IMPERIAL tastes better and more buttery than ever before. It will add flavor to your toast, hot breads, waffles and pancakes, and make them more appealing. Foods seasoned with IMPERIAL will also have a more distinctive buttery taste.

So don't believe tha' you can't improve on a good thing. It's been happening to IMPERIAL right alone.

Sigma Gamma Rho marks Founders' Day

By Pattie Hodges, AFRO Women's Editor

Celebrating 61 years of community service (1922-1983) the Alpha Alpha Sigma Chapter, Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. gathered at the Forum, Primrose Ave. Saturday, Nov. 12 with the theme "Excellence in the 80's — Through Women on the Move."

To virtually a full house, Soror Pamela Huey, Emcee, gave the welcome, with greetings from undergraduates by Soror Ewe Ward, of Beta Tau Chapter, and grace was offered by Soror Karen Smith.

Following the delectable luncheon, was the presentation of awards. For devoted Sigma Service Sorors Gladys Brown and Dorothy Riley were cited, with Soror Veta Boothe, serving as presenter. Dorothy Rawlings was cited for her contributions in Mathematics to Baltimore City Public Schools.

The Sigma Civic Award, garnered by City Councilwoman Victorine Adams, was received for her by Pauline Butler.

Soror Alice Cooper-Lee won the 'Sigma of the Year' award and for outstanding contributions in the Performing Arts Mrs. Verna Day was awarded.

All awardees got lovely plaques, and Soror Lee was also presented an acrostic spelling out her admirable qualities.

A special highlight of the affair was the fashion show presented by the Baltimore Chapter of Fashion and Accessory Designers, Inc. (NAFAD), with Mrs. B. J. Watteis the very able commentator.

Fashions for all occasions were aired by models Vanessa Williams, Gwen Kellam, Anita Williams, Candace Easterling, Cee Cee Stokes, Delores Sommerville, Carolyn Sessioms and Quiana Cooke.

Designers whose lovely creations drew oohs and aahs included Gladys Williams, Catherine Wooten, Barbara Worsham, Jean Taylor, Floria Jennings and Mary Buster.

All of the beautiful hats were by long-time Baltimore milliner Nell Sheridan, who is local NAFAD president.

There was more in store with door prizes for delighted lucky ticket stub holders and with remarks by Soror Myra Curtis, chairperson for the affair, folks departed with an after aura of pleasure for a time well spent.

Soror Vivien Gardner is chapter basileus. Others on the Founders' Day Committee included co-chair Pamela Huey, Sorors Valerie Bell, Veta Boothe, Emily Bryant, Rhonda Cooper, Vivien Gardner, Patelle Harris and Alice Cooper-Lee.

NEW BIG PREXY ELECTED

Franklin W. Hunt, a public affairs specialist at the Social Security Administration, was elected president of the Greater Baltimore Chapter of Blacks In Government (BIG) at the group's recent monthly meeting. Also elected were several other officers and members of the Board of Directors.

Hunt, who is also an attorney, was vice-president for federal affairs for the Baltimore BIG chapter, one of the largest of more than 100 chapters around the country.

The organization was started five years ago as a vehicle for the black civil servant to work for constructive change. The Greater Baltimore Chapter was established three years ago by a group of employees of the Social Security Administration in Woodlawn.

Hunt said GBC-BIG hopes to increase its efforts at the State and local governmental levels next year. He cited the lack of black representation in many State agencies and the need for blacks in the upper levels of agencies at all government levels.

At the Federal level, Hunt said the organization intends to continue to focus attention on the growing adverse impact of recent personnel changes on black employment and employment opportunities.

"At the Federal level, Hunt said the organization intends to continue to focus attention on the growing adverse impact of recent personnel changes on black employment and employment opportunities.

"At the present rate of reduction we may expect to see significant decrease in the number of blacks employed by the Federal government. The efforts to reduce the size of the workforce is not being evenly applied, and new proposed rules would greatly reduce the few protections minority workers now have against arbitrary and capricious actions of supervisors."

Hunt noted that black employees are being terminated and downgraded at a rate significantly higher than white employees under the Federal personnel reduction policies implemented over the past two years. At the same time, there is substantial underemployment in the workforce with many blacks who were denied jobs commensurate with their education and experience.

Hunt said that GBC-BIG would also attempt to work closer with local organizations on issues of concern to the Black community. "We intend to do a lot more networking and become a more effective component in the organizational structure the Black community brings to bear on the problems we all face," he said.

Other officers elected for the 1984 term were as follows: Franklin W. Hunt, president; Bobbie Swann, executive vice president; Norma Jennings, treasurer; Mildred Owens, Assistant treasurer; Darlene Smallwood, recording secretary; Vivian Paysour, corresponding secretary and Gertrude Wiggins, financial secretary.

Also elected was Herman Moore as chairman of the Board for a three year term, and board members, Jeffries Carey, Carmelita Hackett, Doris McKinley, Mildred Owens, Herbert Roche, John Stanley, Gertrude Wiggins, Bobbie Swann, and Beulah Williamson.

Elected as delegates to the Regional Council were Beulah Williamson and William Foster. Serving the second year of their two term office are vice-president for local affairs, Melva Greene, and vice-president for state affairs, William Foster.

Single PARENTING

By Kelly Hill

For the past couple of months I have been receiving letters from single parents who are interested in meeting other single parents.

The question that is frequently asked by most single parents is how to meet other single parents of the opposite sex for either companionship or someone who understands what it is like to be a single parent.

Some have tried local bars or discos, and found that their needs still weren't being met. I received the following letter, which is typical of more than 30-35 letters that I have received this year.

"I am single with one child, rather attractive but lonely. How can I meet an eligible, single parent of the opposite sex?"

Loneliness and the inability to meet compatible mates of the opposite sex is the main problem confronting single parents.

The needs of the single parent must be met in order to allow the parent to be effective in his-her role as a parent.

Who and how does one approach this problem? First, have you contacted any other single parents in your neighborhood for advice?

What type of person are you looking for? What are your basic needs?

Because there is a need that must be met, Black Single Parents has organized such a group of eligible (single parents) women and men whose basic objective is to bring people together who are compatible, who share similar interests and are lonely.

If you would like to join this organization and attend one of our social activities, please let us know by writing P. O. Box 26542, Baltimore, MD 21207.

CALENDAR

FAREWELL BANQUET

The faculty and staff at New Era Day Care and Primary School will host a farewell banquet for Ms. Rosaria Bass, Sunday, November 27 at the C & G Village Restaurant. Ms. Bass, who has been Program Director at the school since 1980 and began teaching there in 1978, will be leaving her position to pursue further goals and interest.

She was instrumental in developing the curriculum at New Era that incorporates a pan-african philosophy and encourages academic achievement.

Ms. Bass who is a Baltimore resident, earned her B.S. degree in early childhood education and history at UMBC, and acquired management certification through the Johns Hopkins Organization Management Program.

On December 18, Ms. bass will begin a three month excursion that will include visits to London, Rome, Italy, Ethiopia, Kenya, Zimbabwe and Bostswana.

TO OUR FRIENDS--

Some of you already know that the Fourth District Democratic Organization, the City's oldest Black Democratic Club is moving in a new direction. It is venturing toward a "Town Hall Forum" which would serve the whole Fortieth District.

The meetings are open to the public - Republican, Democrats and Independents alike. The purpose is to bring to the citizens information on issues which affect the Community. We have a rich source through our elected officials, agency heads, and other public service individuals.

The Committee feels there is a need for such an organization.

If you are interested in getting in on the ground floor of this group, please attend the Monthly Meeting on November 28th at the Odd Fellows Hall - 2257 Madison Avenue at 6:30 p.m.

Dr. Brent Johnson, Secretary of the newly created Department of Employment and training will be presented by Delegate Howard "Pete" Rawlings. The unemployed, misemployed and underemployed will want to hear this speaker. Come and bring someone!

THE NEWLY ORGANIZED "40th DISTRICT TOWN HALL" AD HOC COMMITTEE includes John H. Thornton, Dr. Flossie Dedmond, Mrs. Rosabelle Robinson, Mrs. Lillian Fernandez, Mr. & Mrs. Roger Grier, Willie C. Johnson, Miss Toni Duren, Miss Lisa Williams and Verda F. Welcome, Advisor.
