

25. Sir Thomas Lawrence, Bart. (Prot.), succeeded as President of the Council, 22 Sept 1693 (AM, XIX, 60). Superseded by Andros.

26. Sir Edmund Andros, Knt. (Prot.), Governor of Virginia, took possession of the Maryland government on 25 Sept. 1693 under a commission dated 3 March 1691 (AM, XIX, 62; XX, 7). On 15 Feb 1693/4 he appointed Col. Nicholas Greenberry Chancellor to succeed Blakiston, deceased (AM, XX, 46). He soon returned to Virginia.

27. Col. Nicholas Greenberry (Prot.), left in charge, as President of the Council, by Andros (AM, XIX, 65-66); superseded by Lawrence.

28. Sir Thomas Lawrence, Bart, reinstated as President, 7 May 1694 (AM, XX, 59); superseded by Nicholson.

29. Col. Francis Nicholson (Prot.), com. 10 Feb. 1693/4; assumed office 26 July 1694 (AM, XIX, 25; XX, 83). On 30 July he appointed Col. Henry Jowles Chancellor to succeed Greenberry (AM, XX, 128). In the winter of 1694-95 the seat of government was moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. Nicholson was appointed Governor of Virginia in 1698.

30. Col. Nathaniel Blakiston (Prot., nephew of Col. Nehemiah Blakiston above), com. 19 Oct. 1698; assumed office 2 Jan. 1698/9; took the Great Seal from Col. Jowles, 6 July 1699; left for England, 30 June 1702 (AM, XXV, 51; XXII, 310). He was the Maryland Agent in London, 1702-09 and 1713-21.

31. Thomas Tench (Prot.), left in charge as President of the Council (AM, XXV, 125); superseded by Seymour.