Helping to usher in the Yuletide season with the spirit of giving Sunday, Dec. 4 were Joanne Rambaran, Betty Glascoe, Jaki Hall and Carol Ball, who have dubbed themselves 'Nefertiti's Daughters.'

They hosted a fundraiser to benefit the United Black Fund at Jaki's lovely Columbia MD home in the 5300 block of Racegate Run. 'A Classy Bash' it was called and very classy it was.

Art, on exhibit and available for purchase were pen and ink drawings by Marian Howard and OK's Imports Exports, Inc. and works in oil done by artist Nelson Taylor. There were many fantastically good pieces on display.

From 6 until 10 p.m. folks from all walks of life came from Baltimore, Washington, DC and other places, as well as Columbia.

They dined on sumptuous buffet goodies of barbequed chicken wings (with the smoked flavor intact); meat balls with a creamy sauce, as well as the usual ones, luscious seafood and other dips, cheeses, fruit and veggies, and munches. A variety of wines, including champagne flowed freely all evening and the atmosphere was one of joviality.

There was much lively banter among the guests, both on the first and second levels, and spirited dancing in the clubroom area on the lower (basement) level.

Many were also busy checking out the art and several were busy buying it. Near the end of the evening's festivities Jaki presented a check to Dr. Calvin Rolark of Washington, DC, head of the National United Black Fund, an organization which provides help for blacks in much the same manner as the United Way serves the general public through organizations of help.

Dr. Rolark graciously received the check and stated that he would hold the money in escrow for the Baltimore chapter of the United Black fund.

He also pep - rallied the crowd by having them repeat after him sayings of hope for the race, such as "The only one who can save us for us, is us."

The fundraiser was a resounding success. It was especially rewarding to see so many people out for a worthy cause on a Sunday night, knowing that most of them had to "meet the man" early Monday morning morning.

EVA MADDOX HONORED

Happiness and fun were the order of the evening as Eva Maddox was hosted at a birthday dinner party by her daughters, Brenda Trusty and Sandra Jackson, Saturday, Dec. 3 at the 3400 block Woodland Ave. apt. of the honoree.

The delectables included roast turkey, ham, brisket of beef, macaroni salad, candied yams, string beans, raw bar, munchies, port wine, cheese, apple pie, French Apple pie, coffee, punch and cocktails.

Mrs. Maddox cut a yellow sheet cake with yellow flowers, trimmed in blue, inscribed, "Happy Birthday, Mom on your 50th Birthday."

The table it rested on was trimmed in green and silver in a Christmas mode, while the room was decorated in blue and rust.

The honoree wore a long, white A-lined gown with ruffles from sleeves to waist, white stockings and blue shoes, accented with blue and white earrings and a pearl necklace trimmed with blue.

She received many monetary gifts and cards of well wishes.

Out to help her celebrate were Mrs. Mary Maddox, honoree's sister; Mrs. Ethel Maddox, an aunt; Avon and Jackie Maddox and Shirley James, nieces; Edward Maddox, a nephew; Two grandsons, Antonio Brewer and Steven Wright, were also in attendance, as were twin sons of niece, Shirley, Mark and Glen James, and Mrs. Maddox's brother, Robert Cole.

Other guests included Dr. and Mrs. Curtis Adams, Dr. Irving Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Brock, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carter, Mrs. Tempie Bulls, Mrs. Juanita Lewis, Gregory Lewis, Mrs. Freda Wilson, Mrs. Barbara Jackson, Mrs. Vera Ross, Melvin Newson;

Also Harry Carroll and his guest, Crystal; Joseph White, Karen Dwight, Theo Taylor and Glen Simms.

CHRISTENING

Recently little David Alexander Morris, age four months, son of Mr. and Mrs. William "Billy" Morris (Darcell), was christened at the Tree of Life Church, Schroeder and Bennett Sts.

William Morris Sr., the baby's grandfather, is the baby's overseer. Little David is also the grandson of Mrs. Elizabeth East.
