
FRATERNAL FEELING — Christopher Spindler of Mt. St. Joe and Rodney Edwards (R) of Northern High School, compare notes as finalists before Spindler was selected as "Unsung Hero" in area scholastic football Friday night at Hunt Valley. The annual award sponsored by the McCormick Co. honors the young man deemed the most effective but least noticed among 28 nominees. It is the sponsor's way of rewarding unselfishness.

GLOVE IS GOLD — First baseman Eddie Murray has been named the American League's gold glove winner for his position. Although Eddie is best known for his feats with a bat, this marked the second straight year the quiet but efficient Bird has been recognized for his fielding.

Colts 9-point underdogs

As is customary, odds-makers are predicting the Colts will be defeated Sunday in their NFL game at Denver.

The Broncos, according to Las Vegas, figure 9 points better than visiting Baltimore.

In their crucial game with the Cowboys at Dallas, the Washington Redskins also are underdogs — by 3 points.

IN A BREEZE — Just as he ran over Nebraska opponents on the football field, Mike Rozier steamrolled contenders for the Heisman Trophy, purported to represent the college season's best player. His 482 points demolished Brigham Young quarterback Steve Young (153) and Boston College QB Doug Flutie (23).

Golden Bears put the heat to Lenny Moore, Bob wade

BENCHED MAGIC—Earvin "Magic" Johnson, all-star guard of the Los Angeles Lakers and NBA player-of-the-month in November, will be sidelined up to two months with a dislocated right index finger. Johnson was injured in a game against the Dallas Mavericks Friday night.

The 3rd annual roast of the Golden Bears Association Monday night at Martin's West made as targets Lenny Moore and Bob Wade.

Moore, affectionately known as "Spats" because of the appearance he gave with outside ankle braces during his brilliant career with the Colts, was not a Golden Bear as a collegian; he was a Penn State graduate.

But the hosting committee chose him because he has become a legendary figure in Baltimore football lore.

Wade, who bears the nickname "Flakie," is a Morgan alumnus, hence a one-time Golden Bear athlete.

In fact, the talented developer of championship basketball and football teams at Dunbar High School is a native of the city and a product of the Baltimore public school system.

Wade celebrated his 39th birthday this morning (Friday).

Among the "roasters" who turned out to put the friendly heat to Moore and Wade were:

Deputy Police Commissioner Bishop L. Robinson, one-time Lady Bear Carole Johnson-Todd, Edmondson High athletic director "Pete" Pompey, former Morgan athletic director-football coach Earl Banks, ex-Colt Jim Parker and former Dunbar principal Julia Woodland.

The evening's program also paid tribute to Thomas "Rapp" Wheatley and Dr. Uthman Ray, both for their outstanding community work.

Wheatley was a Golden Bear basketballer in the late thirties and early forties.

Both he and Ray are products of Douglass High School and Morgan State.

Proceeds from the affair were channelled to the Golden Bears Association's Scholarship Fund.

By Joe Black

Through the years some Black people have been on my "case" because they resent my philosophical challenges to Black America. Well, they can get set to blast me again because I'm going to tell Black people that 1984 is not the year for a Black presidential candidate.

My negative attitude is based upon the belief that a Black candidate will not have ample time to develop a national political strategy or to raise the multi-million dollars that are needed for a successful campaign. The success of the Honorable Harold Washington is not an honest parable, for we cannot forget that some loyal Democrats are impeding his efforts to be the mayor of Chicago. Of course, a Black candidate will increase Black voter registration, but Black votes are not enough. The Hispanics are doing their own thing, thus reducing the chances of a coalition.

It's foolhardy to project the idea Blacks will have more clout within the Democratic Party, because traditionally the Democratic Party has taken the Black vote for granted. Take my word for it, there's a new game in town; instead of Reaganomics, they are now selling the story that Reagan's policies have improved the nation's economy. So my friends, if we want power we must encourage the unregistered voters to register Republican so that through the power of numbers, we can get both major political parties to listen to the agenda of Black America.

Dunbar 5 favored in schoolboy event

Despite the formidable opposition, Bob Wade and his Dunbar High School five are favorites to capture the 2nd annual Beltway Classic at Towson Center.

The defending champion Poets will swing into action tonight (Friday) following a bye in the 6-team event which got underway last evening (Thursday).

In the field to challenge Dunbar are No. 2 seed DeMatha High of Hyattsville, Archbishop Carroll of Washington, Calvert Hall, Cardinal Gibbons and Tolentine High of New York City.

Considered the most dangerous of the contenders is DeMatha which broke the Poets' 60-game win streak in D.C., last weekend.

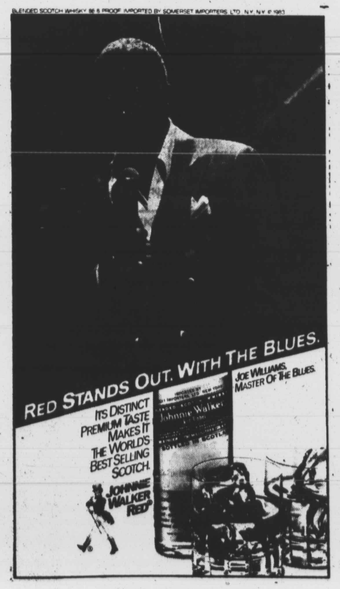
BAltimorean eyes pro karate title

On November 4, Leroy "Powerhouse" Hopkins, knocked out James "Hardrock" Lewis to win the vacant Professional Karate Federation middleweight title.

On Nov. 15, in Montreal Canada, Hopkins, a Baltimorean, scored an eight-round decision over Danny Maccaruso, the P.K.A. ex-world champion.

Hopkins, who is undefeated in his last 12 pro fights and boasts a record of 12-1-6, will fight the world champion, Jean Yves Therault on Dec. 20, for the P.K.A. world title.

DECISION COMING — Retired welterweight champion Sugar Ray Leonard will use an exhibition match at Andrews Air Force Base to determine whether he wants to return to boxing. Leonard made the statement during an interview at RFK Sunday after his induction into the "Hall of Stars" at the stadium. Wife Juanita remains strongly opposed to the proposed comeback.



Mrs. Santa says: 'Please help!'

The need is even greater this year and the AFRO's Mrs. Santa urges you to dig deep and help feed hungry families again this year. Our goal is $20,000 by December 17.

The AFRO's Mrs. Santa uses money to buy food baskets which are delivered by the Maryland National Guard. We also buy food coupons which are mailed to people referred to us by our readers, AFRO Clean Block Captains, City Agencies and the Police Department.

We are asking businesses, clubs and organizations and individuals to make a generous cash donation. Also, we are asking individuals and groups to sell Mrs. Santa's flowers at $1 each. Senior citizens and volunteers are crocheting 5,000 red and green flowers to be sold at social functions. Many people are placing them on their counters at their places of business so that giving to help feed hungry families will be easier because people are so hard pressed for cash these days.

Contribute good used toys and clean clothes to Mrs. Santa's Store. When you contribute to the store, we will contact our families so they can select the things they need in their sizes.

SPECIAL NOTE: We'll be glad to arrange a picture with Mrs. Santa for all contributions over $150. When it is published in the AFRO, it will encourage others to give and we desperately need all the help we can get.

Please make checks and money orders payable to Mrs. Santa, AFRO Charities, 628 N. Eutaw St., Baltimore, Md. 21201. All contributions are tax deductible.

Mrs. Santa's cases:

'Out of Work 2 years'

CASE 85- I am the mother of two and have been out of work for two years and presently on Social Services. My oldest daughter has been in a foster home for the last ten years, so this will be our first Xmas together as a family. Please help me make this a good holiday for them.

'Mother and father in jail'

CASE 86- My friend is raising her 2 year old granddaughter all alone. The little girl's mother and father are both in jail. Most of the money she receives goes to pay the bills and there is very little left. She would be grateful for any help.

CASE 87- I am 55, suffering from asthma and my income has been cut since September. When my youngest child turned 16, Social Services told me I am ineligible for any more assistance. My husband receives a small check and he is very sick. Please help me with food and clothes.

CASE 88- I know a sweet lady who is always helping other people, no matter what the price. This lady just can't get around like she used to because her legs are giving her trouble and her income is low. I went to visit her recently and she only had a pitcher of water in her refrigerator. I felt so bad because she is always helping everyone else. I gave a little of what I had but I am unable to give her much because my husband is laid-off. Please send send her a basket.

CASE 89- There is a family in need of help. The father is one of the laid-off Sparrows Point workers and his unemployment checks have run out. He can't find a job and he has five children as well as his wife to care for. They won't have a decent meal for the holiday. They deserve help as he was a good worker and provider when he did have a job.

CASE 90- I am presently disabled due to knee surgery. I will be unable to work until the first of the year. There are five children in my home. We would be grateful for any assistance you can provide.

CASE 91- We are a family of five. I am currently working part-time and my husband is not working at all, so my paycheck is barely enough to get us through, much less for the holidays. All we want for Christmas is to be able to give our children a good meal and a present.

CASE 92- My mother and I need help badly. I have three children and she still has one child at home. We receive very little income and our children are in need. Any help would be appreciated.

CASE 93- I am a disabled father, trying to take care of my son, six. His mother left and I can't find her to obtain any kind of support. It's been very hard to care for my son with this crippling arthritis, but I'd rather be dead than let my son be sent to a foster home. I truly love my son but I just can't give him the things he asks for. When I explain to him how things are, he looks at me and says "Daddy, when I get big it's going to be alright". Please make it alright now. We don't need much, just some food and maybe a toy or two. I hope you can help us.

CASE 94- I am a father with one son who attends school. I have been evicted four times this year. I suffer with asthma and am unable to find a job I don't have any heat, gas and electric or food for Xmas.

CASE 95- We have been without gas and electric since June of this year. My daughter 15, is having a baby the end of this year and is in need of things for the baby. I am trying to get my gas and electric on again.

CASE 96- My sister is trying to get her life back together. Her husband walked out on her and she and her three children have been staying at the YWCA for some time. She has moved into a new home and needs everything. They didn't have a Thanksgiving dinner. Would you help her have a nice Xmas.

CASE 97- My friend was evicted in June of this year. She is in another home and trying very hard to get back on her feet and she is a little short on funds. Please help her and her four children have a nice Christmas.

'I can't find work'

CASE 98- I have one daughter. my parents died and we have no living relatives in Baltimore. I can't find a job and Social Services is not enough to make ends meet. I've tried many places for food baskets but never received any. Would appreciate any help.

CASE 99- I was recently burned out. The fire destroyed all my furniture and clothes. My son, daughter and I were in a shelther home for a few months which helped me mentally. The children are in need of clothes and shoes desperately. I'm not concerned about myself, I just want my children to have a nice Xmas. It hurts me to see them do without. I don't have anyone else to turn to.

CASE 100- I was sick and stayed in the hospital following a heart attack. When I came home, a week later, my landlady had gotten rid of my furniture and rented my room. I went in debt to get the furniture I needed to live properly. All I am seeking is clothes to wear.

Nedd warm coat' 18 pt.

CASE 101- I am a senior citizen on a fixed income. I am in need of a warm coat, and dresses. I am on a special diet and I get an incredibly small amount of food stamps. I have many ailments so I go to the doctors frequently.

CASE 102- I need help for my four children. One is retarded, one is asthmatic and can't work the other two are in school. I also have a three-year-old granddaughter living with me. I can't afford to get them much as my budget is limited.

Mother had stroke' 18 pt.

CASE 103- I am 15 and writing to you for help. My mother is very sick, she had a stroke a couple of months ago. She has a lot of health problems that keep her in the hospital. She is very worried about Xmas for me and my nephew. She only gets a small check, so her funds are limited. I have a brother and sister who are out of work, so they look everyday in hopes they will find something before Xmas.

CASE 104- I have three children, one grandchild and four of my sisters' children, who is dead. My income is limited so any help you can give would be appreciated.
