NOTICE TO CLASS MEMBERS

TO: ALL PRESENT AND FORMER INMATES OF THE BALTIMORE CITY JAIL

The purpose of this Notice is to advise you of the submission for approval by the Court of modifications to the Consolidated Decree entered April 24, 1981, in an action before the United States District Court of Maryland involving a class of which you are a member as a Plaintiff. "the action relates to the conditions of confinement at the Baltimore City Jail located 401 East Eager Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21202. It is important that you read and consider the matters in this Notice.

As Counsel for the Class Plaintiffs in the action, the undersigned attorney and Counsel for the City Defendants have reached an agreement and have presented modifications to the Court for consideration and approval. The Court will determine whether the modifications are fair, reasonable, and adequate. If approved by the Court, the modifications will be binding upon the Plaintiffs and the City Defendants and will terminate this litigation, at least for the interim period and with the exception of any proceedings upon claims for individual damages not sustained by the class as a whole.

All the attorneys for the parties have agreed that individual claims for damages shall not be barred by the terms of the modifications and that inmates previously or presently incarcerated at the Jail who believe that they have sustained actual injuries than alleged violations of the Consolidated Decree which are separate and distinct from the injuries sustained by the class as a whole may bring new, separate, individual actions for damages, subject to the applicable statue of limitations and the City Defendants' defenses of impossibility, substantial performance, and good faith.

A copy of the modifications has been attached to the Notices posted at the Baltimore City Jail. Copies of the modifications and the Consolidated Decree are available for examination at the libraries of the institutions of the Divisions of Correction of the State of Maryland; the office of the Clerk of the United States District Court for the District of Maryland located at 101 West Lombard Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21201; the main branch of the Enoch Pratt Library located at 400 Cathedral Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21201; and the office of the City Solicitor located in City Hall at 100 North Holliday Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21202.

If you are satisfied with the modifications or if you have no objections, then you need not take any action. Any questions concerning the litigation or the modifications may be directed to the attorney whose name appears below or you may consult with an attorney of your choice. If you have any objections to the adoption of the modifications, you should file your objections with the Clerk of the United States District Court, in writing, no later than the 9th day of February, 1984. After that date, it will be too late to object.
