

be served by proceeding against said person in the Criminal Court of Baltimore, in connection with the trial of any other charges against the same person there pending, or in connection with the trial of charges there pending against another person, arising in the latter case, out of related matters and facts, the person so charged in the court shall be proceeded against in the Criminal Court of Baltimore.

(3) The powers of the Grand Jury of Baltimore City as the same existed on the day immediately preceding the first Monday in May, 1961, to present any person for trial in the Criminal Court of Baltimore City as the result of any investigation initiated on its own motion, or that of any of its predecessors, shall not in any way be limited, abridged, or circumscribed by this Act. Any such presentment by the Grand Jury of Baltimore City shall be conclusively presumed to have been made in accordance with the provisions of this subsection.

[3] (4) Whenever any judges of the court shall, in his discretion, determine in any case within the jurisdiction of the court, that the interests of justice would best be served by trying the charge against the person appearing before him in the Criminal Court of Baltimore, the said judge may, before [trial] a verdict is rendered, waive jurisdiction in the matter.

[4] (5) In cases in which the person charged is to be, or may be, originally proceeded against in the Criminal Court of Baltimore, under subsection (1), (2), [or] (3), or (4) of this subsection, the court shall proceed as provided for in cases beyond its jurisdiction under Section 115 of this article.

(d) The Municipal Court of Baltimore City and the Judges thereof shall have the power to issue Writs of Habeas Corpus Ad Testificandum and Ad Prosequendam and shall have, possess, and exercise all the powers and duties that were vested in or conferred upon the Justices of the Peace of Baltimore City, including the Police Magistrates, the Chief Police Magistrates of Baltimore City, the Magistrate-at-large of Baltimore City on the day immediately preceding the first Monday of May, 1961.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1963.

Approved May 6, 1963.
