Budget cuts hit wheelchair cagers

The Baltimore Ravens Wheelchair Basketball Club is approaching its 20th season. Unfortunately, the Ravens have been sponsored by such groups as the League for the Handicapped and the Maryland Rehabilitation Center which due to budget cuts are no longer able to financially support wheelchair athletics.

As a result, the Ravens club has launched its initial campaign to raise money for the 1984-85 season.

The inaugural effort toward that end will be staged on Nov. 16, in the form of "Homecoming Disco" at Winner Circle Hall, 1225 E. Eager Street, from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m.

In addition, the directors are recruiting sports boosters. Any business, group, club or individual may become a sports booster. If anyone is interested, he or she should call Betty James at 323-0500 daily, before 4 p.m.

The Ravens Wheelchair Program conducts preparation and competition in both basketball and track and field.

Delaware State favored in pre-season MEAC poll

DOVER, Delaware — The Delaware State Hornets have been selected to take top honors in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference in men's basketball and also have placed three players on the All-MEAC first team.

In the annual poll voted by the league's head coaches, sports information directors and conference office staff, DelState grabbed 11 out of a possible 15 first place votes, good enough for 169 points to outdistance North Carolina A & T and Howard University who tied for second place with 132 points.

Three Delaware State seniors wound up on the pre-season All-MEAC team. Forward Bernard Campbell, the second leading freshman scorer in the country last year, joins teammates Danny Sapp and Dominic Snowden as first team selections. Campbell was also tabbed as the runnerup for MEAC Player of the Year honors behind North Carolina A & T standout Eric Boyd.

Meanwhile, Delaware State's Lady Hornets wound up in third place in the same pre-season poll. They also placed three players on All-MEAC teams, headed by first team selection Denise Carroll at guard.

Delaware State, on the heels of one of the finest years in its history (18-10, third in MEAC play) received three first place votes out of a possible 15 and totaled 127 points.

South Carolina State was selected as the pre-season favorite with 150 points and five first place votes, followed by Bethune-Cookman with a matching five first place ballots and a total of 133 points. The annual poll is voted on by MEAC coaches, sports information directors and conference office staff.

Laurel innovates in effort to rescue troubled racing

LAUREL, Md. — A series of promotions designed for the racing patron will reach a high point during the month of November as Laurel Race Course moves into the final five weeks of the 1984-85 - day meeting. A gift program encompasses travel bags, ski caps, mugs and caps on the four successive Sundays in November. In addition, Harry M. Stevens, Inc., the track's caterers, will be offering discounts on hot dogs and pizzas through special coupons distributed International Day.

Many Laurel racegoers have received by mail a special bonus book which provides food coupons, reduced admission and free programs.

The giveaway bonanza began Sunday, when 10,000 handy green travel bags were distributed to paying customers. The bag, imprinted with the Laurel logo, is co - sponsored by Bill Ayares Chevrolet of Laurel.

On Sunday, 7,000 ski caps will be given away. Stroh Breweries will sponsor Frosted Mug Day, Nov. 18. A week later National Premium Beer will be backing Cap Day, Nov. 25.

IN MEMORIAM

BOONE - In loving memory of my beloved husband and our father, FREDERICK O. BOONE (Fritz), who departed this life November 11, 1982.
Do not ask us if we miss him,
There's such a vacant place.
Oft we think we hear his footsteps
And see his smiling face.
Days of sadness still come o'er us
Tears in silence often flow.
Memory keeps him ever near us
Though he left us two years ago.
