U.M.E.S. ALUMNI DINNER DANCE

Over three hundred and fifty alumni and friends of the U.M.E.S. Alumni Association, Baltimore Chapter, dined and danced to the music of King Snake and the D.C. Unlimied of Washington, DC at the Forum on Friday, November 9. This affair was the first major activity of the chapter, which received its charter in August.

Among the guests were alumni and friends from the Eastern Shore, Washington, DC, Delaware, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Virginia.

Dr. Earl Richardson, recently appointed President of Morgan State University, was awarded a plaque by the Chapter as an outstanding Alumnus and Educator.

Dr. William Hychte, Chancellor of U.M.E.S., in his greeting expressed his pleasure and pride in seeing the many alumni present and the progress the Baltimore Chapter is making.

Other honored guests included: Dr. Augustus Lowe, currently an instructor at U.M.B.C., Dr. Charles Simmons, President of Sojourner Douglass College, Valerie Watts, President of the National Chapter, Walter Jones, President of the Washington Alumni Chapter and Sam Wilson and Stan Brown of Coppin State College.

The Chapter hopes the dinner-dance will become an annual affair. This affair is the first of several planned by the Baltimore Chapter to raise money for the U.M.E.S. centennial, which will be celebrated in 1986.

Everyone enjoyed a beautiful evening. At the end of the dance over 300 maroon and gray balloons descended upon the crowd as Hawks gathered to sing the Alma Mater.

Chairperson of the dance was Charles Gregg. Current officers of the Association are: Jesse Edwards, Thomas Frasier, Delphine Lee, Dianna Rogers, Hugh Polk, Ruth Brown, Charles Gregg, and Deborah Edwards.

The next activity is an overnight bus trip to U.M.E.S. Homecoming on February 23, 1985. Persons interested in attending should call 466-0132 or 542-9212 before November 23, 1984.

The Chapter is presently updating its roster and solicits the support of all U.M.E.S. alumni. The next association meeting will be December 1, 1984 at Christ United Methodist Church located on the corner of Chase and Washington Sts., at 5 p.m.

HBO PRODUCTION

The HBO production of "Finnegan, Begin Again" selected Richmond, VA for their filming location. The featured celebrities were Mary Tyler Moore, and Robert Preston. Also a cameo appearance was made by musician-actor-martial artist Vaughn McClarrin of Richmond. The HBO premiere will be this December.

80th B'DAY FETE

Mrs. Queenie I. Green, of Baltimore, recently marked her 80th birthday (which was Nov. 7) with son and daughter-in-law Irving and Dorothy Green, daughter, (Yours truly), niece Deborah Green, nephew Kenneth Green and friends Warren and Emma Jordan.

The celebration was held at the lovely Ferndale, MD home of Dot and Irving. He, too, was celebrating a Nov. 8 birthday.

MARGARET THORNTON, MORRIS ELDERIDGE EXCHANGE VOWS

Margaret Thornton, Technical Staff Manager in the Office of Disability Operations, SSA, recently exchanged wedding vows with Morris Eldridge who is employed as a manager at Fort George G. Meade. The wedding took place in their Severn, MD home.

The groom's uncle, the Reverend Blackstone of Elkridge Independent Community Church performed the wedding. He was assisted by the Reverend Kidd, pastor of the Cherry Hill Presbyterian Church.

A gala reception attended by close family members, friends and several relatives from South Carolina, followed the wedding ceremony.

DAVID MCCOY INSTRUCTS CLASS

David McCoy, Disability Examiner and member of the Social Security Chorus has been assigned to instruct a Disability Examining class for newly promoted Examiners in the Division of Internal Operations. Ms. Beatrice Riley has assisted with the course design and schedules.

SAD NEWS

We were saddened with the news that Margaret Overby Short, a former SSA employee was eulogized last week at St. James Episcopal Church. Her employment covered a span of 35 years before resigning in 1980 due to illness. Margaret was the sister of former SSA'er, Marie L. Overby.

NEW ALBUM IN THE MAKING

Just in case you have been wondering what happened to song writer and guitarist Ronald Colbert, he is now living in California with his wife and three - year - old son.

In addition to working for the California Department of Corrections, he will release a new album under the Blue Butterfly label in January. Both Ronald and his lovely wife wing and play the trumpet.

POTENTATE BALL

Jerusalem Temple No. 4, Shriners, held their Annual Potentate Black Tie Ball at Martin's West in late October. The guest of honor was the Illustrious Potentate Henry C. Johnson, a Federal Government retiree. His wife Gladys celebrated her birthday the same evening.

Cabinet members moving about on the dance floor included Harry Price, Chief Rabban; James Dupuy, Assistant Rabban; Irving Council, High Priest and Prophet; Claude Urquhart, First Ceremonial Master, Carrol Alexander, Captain of the Guard; Nathaniel Jones, Outer Guard; William Dickerson, Deputy of the Oasis and Donald Garrett, Manager of the Grenadire Club.

Guests traveled from as far as Okinawa, Japan to attend the grand affair. Charlie Stewart served as Toastmaster during the program.

TRUSTEE BALL

The Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge, F & A.M. of Maryland, Inc. held its Annual Trustee Ball in early November at the Blue Crest North banquet hall.

At least 1,000 persons were in attendance at the Black tie sit - down dinner that featured entertainment in two separate rooms with two separate bands.

Grand Master, Sam Daniels served as the emcee. Mickey Fields and soloist William O'Mara were featured in one room, and Damito Jo took the spotlight in the overflow room.

The entertainment was arranged by Damita Jo's husband, James "Biddy" Woods. He serves as the Masonic Grand Director of Music.

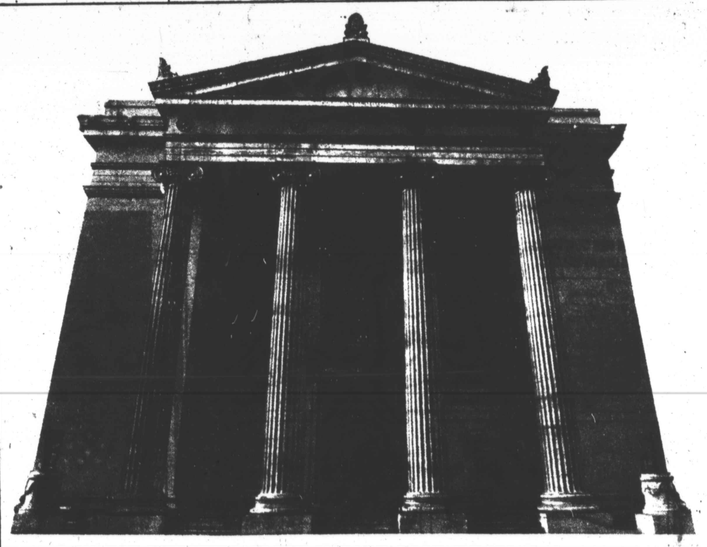
"Helping Families Keep Healthy"



Baltimore's newest full service commercial bank was founded in 1818.

The Savings Bank of Baltimore is now The Bank of Baltimore.

We began in one room in a building on what is now Baltimore Street.

On opening day a tavern keeper, a barber, a schoolmaster, two tailors and a housewife deposited a whopping sum of $170.

We've been through six wars and a Great Depression.

We know what it's like to work for a living.

Today, Baltimore is better off than ever before. And the bank that's stood by its working men and women since 1818 is now even better able to serve you.

We've become The Bank of Baltimore.

The Bank that belongs to what will soon be the largest automated teller network in America.

The Bank with free Mastercard and Visa, no annual fee, no account balance requirement.

The Bank that's open when working people need us most: at 8:30AM weekdays downtown; on Friday evenings and Saturday mornings at all our neighborhood branches.

The Bank that gives you consistently high rates on your savings—not just short-term, hyped-up introductory rates.

The Bank that will meet every one of your financial needs. And never forget where the money comes from.

THE BANK OF BALTIMORE
Where hard work pays off.
